

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	xi
PART I. American Studies and Social Movements
1. In the Midnight Hour	3
American Studies in a Moment of Danger
2. Sent for You Yesterday, Here You Come Today	31
Who Needs the Thirties?
3. Dancing in the Dark	57
Who Needs the Sixties?
4. Listening to Learn and Learning to Listen	83
Who Needs the Eighties?
PART II. Race, Culture, and Collective Struggle
5. Like Crabs in a Barrel	117
Why Interethnic Anti-Racism Matters Now
6. The Lion and the Spider	139
Mapping Sexuality, Space, and Politics in Miami Music
7. Not Just Another Social Movement	169
Poster Art and the Movimiento Chicano
8. As Unmarked as Their Place in History	185
Genre Anxiety and Race in Seventies Cinema
PART III. Facing Up to What's Killing You
9. "Facing Up to What's Killing You"	213
Urban Art and the New Social Movements

10. In the Sweet Buy and Buy	235
Consumer Culture and American Studies
11. Taking Positions and the War of Position	271
The Politics of Academia
12. Don't Cry for Me, Ike and Tina	293
American Studies at the Crossroads
Notes	317
Permissions	353
Index	355