Contents

Preface IX
Acknowledgments XI
Abbreviations XIII

I. PAULINE AND DEUTERO-PAULINE LETTERS

Romans

2. The Implied Exhortation in Rom 8,5-8 [2000] 7-17
   I. Introduction (7) – II. Analysis (9) – III. Conclusion (16)

3. The Caesura Between Rom 9,30-33 and 10,1-4 [1999] 19-27
   I. A Break Between Rom 9,30 and 31? (20) – II. Rom 10,1 Marks a Caesura (21) – III. Shifts Between 9,30-33 and 10,1-4 (23)

4. Syntactical and Logical Remarks on Rom 12,8-9a [2000] 29-33
   I. Introduction (29) – II. Some Syntactical/Logical Remarks (29) – III. Conclusion (33)

1 Corinthians
5. The Power of God: A Note on the Connection Between 1 Cor 1,17 and 18 [unpublished] 35-42
   I. Status Quaestionis (35) – II. Power and Deprivation of Power (37) – III. The Cross and the Message about the Cross (40)

6. Paul as Example: A Study of 1 Cor 4,6-21 [1996] 43-62
   I. Line of Thought and Structure (43) – II. Three Exegetical Notes (49) – III. Imitation (57)

7. Universalism in 1 Cor 8,1-11,1 [1996] 63-70
   I. Analysis (64) – II. Reflection (68) – III. Conclusion (70)
8. Three Brief Notes on 1 Cor 15 [2001]
   I. The Resurrection of Christ (71) – II. There Is No Resurrection of the Dead (74) – III. The Dead and the Living (79) – General Outlook (85)

9. Just a Possibility?
   A Reply to Johan S. Vos on 1 Cor 15,12-20 [2000]
   I. The Contribution of Johan S. Vos (88) – II. Paul’s Reasoning (88)

2 Corinthians

10. Paul’s Boasting About the Corinthians:
    A Study of 2 Cor 8,24–9,5 [1998]
    I. The State of the Question (92) – II. The Text (96) – III. The Context (99) – Conclusion (106)

11. Dangerous Boasting:
    Paul’s Self-Commendation in 2 Cor 10–13 [1996]
    I. Legitimate Boasting (109) – II. Is All Boasting Dangerous? (117) – III. Boasting as Commendation (122)

12. Paul’s Appeal and the Obedience to Christ:
    The Line of Thought in 2 Cor 10,1-6 [1996]
    I. The Line of Thought (132) – II. Three Special Items (137) – III. The Meekness and Gentleness of Christ (143) – Conclusions (147)

13 Strength in Weakness:
    An Answer to Scott B. Andrews on 2 Cor 11,23b-33 [1997] 149-156
    I. The Position of Scott B. Andrews (149) – II. Critical Remarks (151) – III. Paul’s Attitude of Strength in Weakness (153)

Galatians

    I. Exegesis (158) – II. Argument (172) – III. Three Points of Discussion (175)

15. Like a Mother in the Pain of Childbirth Again:
    A Study of Gal 4,12-20 [1996]
    I. Structure and Line of Thought (184) – II. Exegetical Notes (186) – III. The Imitation of Paul (194)
CONTENTS

16. Abraham and His Offspring:
   A Comparison of Gal 5,1 with 3,13 [1999]
   I. Those of Faith with Abraham Who Had Faith (201) – II. Like Isaac Children of the Promise (204) – III. Christ and Those of Christ: Abraham’s Offspring (210) – Conclusion (214)

17. Is Gal 5,11b a Parenthesis?
   A Response to T. Baarda [1996]
   I. The Position of T. Baarda (217) – II. Renewed Analysis (219) – III. Conclusion (220)

18. The Right Things You Want to Do:
   A Note on Gal 5,17d [1998]
   I. A First Comparison (224) – II. Several Proposals (226) – III. What You Want to Do (230)

19. Paul’s Coherent Admonition in Gal 6,1-6:
   Mutual Help and Individual Attentiveness [1997]
   I. Three Difficulties (235) – II. Analysis of the Text (241) – III. The Coherence of 6,1-6 (251)

20. Second Thoughts:
   Some Reflections on the Law in Galatians [2001]
   I. Galatians 1,14b-21 (257) – II. Galatians 3,6-14 (260) – III. The Law in Galatians (263)

1 Thessalonians

21. Connection or Disjunction? A Note on 1 Thess 2,13 Within 1,2–3,13 [unpublished]
   I. A Connecting Phrase (268) – II. The Line of Thought in 1,2–3,13 (271) – III. Conclusions (276)

22. A Structural Analysis of 1 Thess 4–5 [2000]
   I. Introduction (279) – II. Analysis of 1 Thessalonians 4–5 (280) – III. Methodological Reflections (288)

Varia

23. Christ and the Church, Husband and Wife in
   Eph 5,21-33 [1997]
   I. The Text (297) – II. Christ/Church and Husband/Wife (301) – III. A Fixed Model? (303)
24. Loving God and Steadfastly Awaiting Christ:
   A Note on 2 Thess 3,5 [2000] 309-317
   I. An Overview (310) – II. The Steadfastness of Christ (312) – III. The Love of God (316)

   I. Unity, Tensions and Shifts in 2,13-17 (320) – II. The Syntax in 2,16 (322) – III. The Qualifications of Christian Freedom (324)

II. THE BOOK OF REVELATION

   I. Are Jews Blaspheming? (330) – II. Are Jews Denouncing? (332) – III. Revelation 2,8-11 and 3,7-13 (334) – Conclusion (338)

27. Synagogues of Satan (cf. Rev 2,9 and 3,9):
   Anti-Judaism in the Apocalypse [2001] 341-356
   I. The Jews in 2,9 and 3,9 (342) – II. The Counterattack of John (348) – III. Critical Reflection (352)

28. The Opening of the Seals (Rev 6,1-8,6) [1998] 357-377
   I. Biguzzi on Rev 6,1-8,6 (358) – II. Analysis (364) – III. Conclusion and Reflection (373)

   I. Two Opposite Images (380) – II. Intrinsically Related Parts (386) – III. An Extreme Position? (390)

30. Final Judgments and Ultimate Blessings:

Index of Biblical References 419-430

Index of Authors 431-435