ELIZABETHAN INSTRUMENT MAKERS

The Origins of the London Trade in Precision Instrument Making

Gerard L’E Turner
Senior Research Associate
Museum of the History of Science
University of Oxford

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
CONTENTS

Acknowledgements xi
Illustration credits xii
List of plates xiv

PART ONE
THE LONDON TRADE

1 The London trade in the sixteenth century 3

2 The craftsmen 11
   Introduction 11
   Thomas Gemini 12
   Humfrey Cole 21
   James Kynvyn 25
   Augustine Ryther 27
   Charles Whitwell 29
   Elias Allen 31

3 Map, chart, and book engravers 33
   Thomas Gemini 34
   Humfrey Cole 36
   Augustine Ryther 36
   Robert Beckit 40

4 The instruments 45
   The compendium 46
   The folding rule 68
   The sector 70
   The theodolite 72
   Gunnery table 73

5 Sir Robert Dudley: an exceptional patron 77
   Robert Dudley 77
   Dudley's non-English instruments 83

PART TWO
THE CATALOGUE

Advice to the reader 93
The instruments described 95

Appendix: The attribution of unsigned instruments 285
Bibliography 295
Index 303