Romantic Voices, Romantic Poetics

Selected Papers
from the Regensburg Conference of the German Society for English Romanticism
Inhalt

Christoph Bode
By Way of Introduction: Voice, Text, Mediality – Romantic Self-Positioning 7

Angela Esterhammer
Romantic Voices, Romantic Curses: Blake’s Tiriel,
Hölderlin’s Tod des Empedokles, Shelley’s Prometheus Unbound 21

Anthony John Harding
Rehabilitating Romantic Poetic Voice: Adorno and the Case for Lyric 33

Monika Class
Self-consciousness in Wordsworth’s The Prelude: From Aporia to Poetry 47

Jens Martin Gurr
Morality versus Poetics: Conflicting Evaluations of Sense Perceptions in The Prelude 57

Christoph Reinfandt
World and Voice: Alpine Experiences and the Romantic Resistance to Subjectivism 69

Kai Merten
Plays on the Essential Passions of Men: Adam Smith, Joanna Baillie and the Textual Theatre of the Lyrical Ballads 85

Ute Berns
The Politics of Revolution in Thomas Lovell Beddoes’s Death’s Jest Book 97

Heike Grundmann
Ἐνεκτ ᾇντα (Living Words): Coleridge’s Teleology of Language 107
Martin Procházka
Between Hoax and Ideology: Theory and Illusions of the Imagination in Chapter 13 of Biographia Literaria 119

Shona M. Allan
Ghostly Voices: Concepts of the Supernatural in Tam o’Shanter and Don Juan 133

Rosa Karl
The Powers of Metaphor and Self-Divestment: The Expansion and Annihilation of Poetical Character from Shelley to Keats 143

Mark J. Bruhn
Keats’s Wretched Taste 151

Norbert Lennartz
Apocalyptic Voices: Mary Shelley’s The Last Man and the Romantic Idea of Decadence 167

Naji Oueijan
Echoes from the Orient in Romantic Visions 177

Nicholas Roe
Leigh Hunt’s Juvenilia: Some Effects of Ambition 187

Michael O’Neill
“The All-Sustaining Air”: Romantic Poetry and Some Twentieth-Century Heirs 197