NONVIOLENCE IN AMERICA

A Documentary History

Revised edition

Edited by
Staughton Lynd and Alice Lynd

ORBIS BOOKS
Maryknoll, New York 10545
CONTENTS

Introduction xi

PART I

QUAKERS

1. William Penn, First Letter to the Delaware Indians 1
2. John Woolman
   A. Journal 4
   B. “A Plea for the Poor” 10

PART II

ABOLITIONISTS

5. Henry David Thoreau, “Civil Disobedience” 21

PART III

ANARCHISTS

7. Michael Schwab and August Spies, Speeches in Court, 1886 43

PART IV

PROGRESSIVES

10. William James, “The Moral Equivalent of War” 65
PART V
CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS, WORLD WAR I

13. Jane Addams, "Personal Reactions During War" 91
15. Prisoners for Peace
   A. Ammon Hennacy, "Atlanta Prison—1917" 104
   B. J. George Ewert, "Christ or Country?" 119
   C. Stephen M. Kohn, The Fort Leavenworth General Strike 123

PART VI
TRADE UNIONISM BETWEEN THE WARS

17. Joel Seidman, Sit-Down 141
18. John Sargent, A Union without a Contract 156

Part VII
CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS, WORLD WAR II

19. Donald Benedict and Others, Why We Refused to Register 161
20. William Stafford, "The Battle of Anapamu Creek" 164

PART VIII
DIRECT ACTION FOR PEACE, POST-WORLD WAR II

22. Maurice McCrackin, "Pilgrimage of a Conscience" 175
23. Albert Bigelow, "Why I Am Sailing into the Pacific Bomb-Test Area" 178
24. Wilmer Young, Visible Witness 183
25. Barbara Deming, "Southern Peace Walk: Two Issues or One?" 192
PART IX

DIRECT ACTION FOR CIVIL RIGHTS,
POST-WORLD WAR II

27. Martin Luther King, Jr., "Pilgrimage to Nonviolence" 209
28. CORE and SNCC, Statements of Principle 220
   A. "CORE Rules for Action" 221
   B. Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, Statement of Purpose 222
29. Thomas Gaither, Jailed-In 223
30. William Mahoney, "In Pursuit of Freedom" 234
31. Voter Registration, Mississippi and Georgia 243
   A. Mississippi Violence vs Human Rights 244
   B. A Statement from the Burgland High School Students 246
   C. Robert Moses, Message from Jail 246
   D. Statement by a High School Student 247
   E. [Jack] Chatfield, Lee County Report 248
32. Birmingham, Alabama 252
   A. Birmingham Manifesto, 1963 252
   B. Martin Luther King, Jr., Letter from Birmingham City Jail 254

PART X

THE VIETNAM WAR

33. We Won't Go 269
   A. Declaration of Conscience Against the War in Vietnam 270
   B. Leaflet, McComb, Mississippi 271
   C. Marjorie Swann, "Noncooperation" 272
34. The Pentagon, October 1967 274
   A. Maris Cakars and Others, "The Siege of the Pentagon" 275
   B. Gregory Nevala Calvert, Democracy from the Heart 281
35. Ultra Resistance 286
   A. Daniel Berrigan, Philip Berrigan, and Others, Statement of the Catonsville Nine 287
   B. "The Burning of Paper Instead of Lives" 290
36. Soldiers Against War
   A. The Presidio 295
   B. Brian Willson, Vietnam 301
   C. Operation Dewey Canyon III 305

PART XI

A NEW CATHOLICISM

37. Dorothy Day 309
   A. Peter Maurin 310
   B. “Letter to the Unemployed” 315
   C. Protesting Civil Defense 317
38. Letter from Father Thomas Merton to James Forest 324
40. Shelley Douglass, “A World Where Abortion Is Unthinkable” 337
41. Helen Prejean, Dead Man Walking 344

PART XII

NONVIOLENT TRADE UNIONISM

42. Cesar Chavez 363
   A. Cesar Chavez Recalls 364
   B. “Letter from Delano” 368
   C. Talk on Nonviolence 370
43. Jim Sessions and Fran Ansley, “Singing Across Dark Spaces: The Union/Community Takeover of the Pittston Coal Company’s Moss 3 Coal Preparation Plant” 374

PART XIII

ANTI-IMPERIALISM

44. David Dellinger, “The Future of Nonviolence” 397
46. The Trial of the Winooski 44 427
47. Sanctuary 449
   A. “A History of East Bay Sanctuary Covenant” 450
   B. “Jewish Covenant of Sanctuary” 458
49. Sharon Hostetler, Witness for Peace 473
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CONTENTS ix</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

PART XIV

THE GULF WAR

50. Statements Refusing Military Service
   A. Lynda Reiser, An Inexcusable Reason to Sacrifice a Life 477
   B. Jeff Paterson, Public Statement 481
   C. Erik Glen Larsen, Statement of Refusal to Participate in Interventionist Wars 482

51. Ramsey Clark, “Letter to Secretary-General Javier Perez de Cuellar” 484

52. Howard Zinn, “Just and Unjust Wars” 492

PART XV

HEALING GLOBAL WOUNDS

53. Seabrook 505
   A. “Declaration of Nuclear Resistance” 506
   B. Murray Rosenblith, “Surrounded by Acres of Clams” 508
   C. Cathy Wolff, Reflection on the Seabrook Occupation 515

54. Judi Bari, “The Feminization of Earth First!” 516

55. Western Shoshone Nation and the Global Anti-Nuclear Alliance 521
   A. Purpose Statement 522
   B. Participation Guidelines 523

56. Simon J. Ortiz, “This America Has Been a Burden” 524

Index 527