ENGLAND AND THE LOW COUNTRIES IN THE LATE MIDDLE AGES

Edited by
CAROLINE BARRON AND NIGEL SAUL
Contents

GENEALOGICAL TABLE: the Ruling Dynasties of France, the Low Countries, Burgundy and England 1300–1500 ........................................ iv

MAP: England and the Low Countries c. 1400 .................................. vi

CAROLINE BARRON
Introduction: England and the Low Countries
1327–1477 .................................................................................. 1

1. ANDREW WATHEY
   John of Gaunt, John Pycard and the Amiens Negotiations of 1392 ................................................................. 29

2. SCOT MCKENDRICK
   Tapestries from the Low Countries in England during the Fifteenth Century .......................................................... 43

3. ANNE F. SUTTON AND LIVIA VISSE-FUCHS
   Choosing a Book in Late Fifteenth-century England and Burgundy ........................................................................ 61

4. ALEXANDRA F. JOHNSTON
   Traders and Playmakers: English Guildsmen and the Low Countries ........................................................................ 99

5. MALCOLM VALE
   An Anglo-Burgundian Nobleman and Art Patron: Louis de Bruges, Lord of la Gruthuyse and Earl of Winchester .......... 115

6. ANDREW MARTINDALE
   The Wall-paintings in the Chapel of Eton College .............................................................................................. 133

7. VANESSA HARDING
   Cross-channel Trade and Cultural Contacts: London and the Low Countries in the Later Fourteenth Century .......... 153

8. LAURA WRIGHT
   Trade between England and the Low Countries: Evidence from Historical Linguistics ........................................ 169

INDEX OF PERSONS, PLACES AND SELECTED SUBJECTS ................................................................. 181