Memory and Cultural Politics

New Approaches to American Ethnic Literatures

EDITED BY Amritjit Singh, Joseph T. Skerrett, Jr., Robert E. Hogan

Northeastern University Press • Boston
Contents

Preface xi

Introduction 3

Ethnographic Politics: The Uses of Memory in Ethnic Fiction

William Boelhower 19

The Plural Self: The Politicization of Memory and Form in Three American Ethnic Autobiographies

Jennifer Browdy de Hernandez 41

Telling History: Inventing Identity in Jewish American Fiction

Victoria Aarons 60

Nostalgia and Ambiguity in Martha Lamont’s “Crow and Her Seagull Slaves”

Toby C. S. Langen 87

Oppression and Repression: Personal and Collective Memory in Paule Marshall’s Praisesong for the Widow and Leslie Marmon Silko’s Ceremony

G. Thomas Couser 106

Tilling the Soil to Find Ourselves: Labor, Memory, and Identity in Ernest J. Gaines’s Of Love and Dust

Herman Beavers 121
Contents

Memory and the Matrix of History: The Poetics of Loss and Recovery in Joy Kogawa's Obasan and Toni Morrison's Beloved

Gurleen Grewal 140

The Role of Memory in August Wilson's Four-Hundred-Year Autobiography

Sandra G. Shannon 175

Beyond Mimicry: The Poetics of Memory and Authenticity in Derek Walcott's Another Life

Sandra Pouchet Paquet 194

The Politics of Memory: Remembering History in Alice Walker and Joy Kogawa

David Palumbo-Liu 211

Producing History and Telling Stories: Maxine Hong Kingston's China Men and Zeese Papanikolas's Buried Unsung

Yiorgos Kalogeras 227

Yearning for the Past: The Dynamics of Memory in Sansei Internment Poetry

Stan Yogi 245

Arab American Literature and the Politics of Memory

Lisa Suhair Majaj 266

Feathering the Serpent: Chicano Mythic "Memory"

Rafael Pérez-Torres 291
Contents

Chicanismo as Memory: The Fictions of Rudolfo Anaya, Nash Candelaria, Sandra Cisneros, and Ron Arias

A. Robert Lee 320

Select Bibliography 341
Editors and Contributors 345
Index 349