Thematic Development
in English Texts

Edited by Mohsen Ghadessy

PINTER
London and New York
Contents

List of contributors ix
Foreword xi
Introduction xiii

Part I Emergence and development of the concept of Theme 1

1. A personal view of Theme
   Peter H. Fries 1

2. THEME as an enabling resource in ideational ‘knowledge’ construction
   Christian Matthiessen 20

Part II Practical implications of thematic development 55

3. Thematic options and success in writing
   Margaret Berry 55

4. Thematic development and translation
   Eija Ventola 85

Part III Thematic development in academic and non-academic texts 105

5. Theme, processes and the realization of meanings in academic articles
   Rachel Whittaker 105

6. Thematic development and its relationship to registers and genres
   Mohsen Ghadessy 129

Part IV Contribution of thematic development to stylistics 147

7. Thematic layering and focus assignment in Chaucer’s General
   Prologue to The Canterbury Tales
   Angela Downing 147

8. Marked Theme and its interpretation in A.E. Housman’s
   A Shropshire Lad
   Andrew Goatly 164
Part V The company that Theme keeps 198
9. The Pit after the Theme
   Carolyn G. Hartnett
10. A contribution on a panel discussion on Rheme
    Jan Firbas

Part VI Thematic development and textual accountability 223
11. More than what the message is about: English Theme
    J.R. Martin
12. Studying thematic development in on-line help documentation using the Functional Semantic Processor
    Jonathan Webster

Name index 272
Subject index 275