The Lancashire Cotton Industry

A History Since 1700

edited by
MARY B. ROSE

Lancashire County Books, 1996
Contents

Acknowledgements viii
Notes on contributors ix

1. Introduction: The rise of the cotton industry in Lancashire to 1830
   Mary Rose 1
   - The origins of the Lancashire cotton industry 2
   - Expansion of demand and output 6
   - The emergence and organisation of the factory system 10
   - The concentration of the industry 13
   - Conclusions 26

2. Technological Change
   Geoffrey Timmins 29
   - Technological change and its impact 30
   - The emergence of factory production 53
   - Pace of technological change 54
   - Conclusion 61

3. The Commercial Sector
   Stanley Chapman 63
   - A gallery of merchant pioneers 63
   - Cotton manufacturers as merchants, 1780—1815 68
   - The rise of commission agents and merchant banks c. 1800—1836 72
   - Problems of manufacturers that exported, 1815—1850 76
   - Foreign merchants in Manchester 79
   - Merchants dominate the industry 82
   - Merchants’ problems 86
   - The inter-war years 89
   - Conclusion 92

4. The Business Community
   Anthony Howe 94
   - Unity and diversity within the business community 95
   - The pursuit of success 97
   - Markets, men and institutions 105
Businessmen, politics and the nation 110
Business in the community 116
Conclusion: Fin-de-siécle: change and decline in the business community 117

5. The Factory Workforce
Michael Winstanley

The workforce 121
Child labour 123
Trade unionism and industrial relations 131
The politics of cotton 140
Community and culture in the factory town 147
Conclusion 152

6. Clothing
Sarah Levitt

The impact of cotton 154
Cotton as a fashion fabric 155
Raising standards of dress 156
The nineteenth century: a mass clothing industry develops 161
The twentieth century 167

7. 'Shewey And Full Of Work': Design
Mary Schoeser

1750-1820 188
1820-1890 195
1890-1955 201
Conclusion 208

8. Lancashire and the International Diffusion of Technology
David J. Jeremy

The early nineteenth-century contest for technological leadership in cotton manufacturing 210
Theories of technology diffusion 212
British barriers against diffusion, before 1843 215
Timings and carriers 220
Conclusion 236

9. Indian Summer, 1870-1914
Andrew Marrison

Structure of the Lancashire industry 238
Overseas markets 246
Productivity and Performance 253