The All-White World of Children's Books and African American Children's Literature

edited by Osayimwense Osa

Africa World Press, Inc.
P.O. Box 1892
Trenton, New Jersey 08607
CONTENTS

Acknowledgements .............................................. vii

Introduction
Osayimwense Osa ............................................... ix

The All-White World of Children's Books
Nancy Larrick ..................................................... 1

African-Americans in Children's Literature—
From Stereotype to Positive Representation
Mary Thompson Williams
Helen Bush Caver ................................................ 13

Since the Sixties: Literature for Children by African-American
Writers and Illustrators
Frances Smith Foster ............................................ 33

Illustration Is My Form, The Black Experience,
My Story and My Content
Tom Feelings ...................................................... 47

African-American Communication
Tradition Oral and Literate
Madge Gill Willis ................................................ 55

Images of African-Americans in Picture Books for Children
Judith V. Lechner ................................................ 75
My Calling as a Storyteller
Cynthia Watts .................................................. 91

The Pied Piper of Isleford: Ashley Bryan
Kemie Nix ......................................................... 95

African-American Women Writers of Adolescent Literature
Rosalie Black Kiah ............................................. 101

The Family Chronicles of Mildred D. Taylor
and Mary E. Mebane
Donnarae MacCann ............................................ 115

Master of Nonfiction: James Haskins
Joan Nist .......................................................... 131

The Coretta Scott King Award
Lee Bernd .......................................................... 135

The International Context of African-American Children’s Literature
Dianne Johnson .................................................. 139

African American Folktales
Versus White Supremicist Juvenile Fiction
Donnarae MacCann ............................................. 147

Multiculturalism and Theater for African-American Youth in the ‘90s
Michele McNichols ............................................. 161