The Immigrant Left in the United States

Edited by Paul Buhle
and Dan Georgakas

State University of New York Press
Contents

Introduction [1]

ONE Fence Cutters, Sedicioso, and First-Class Citizens: Mexican Radicalism in America [11]
   Douglas Monroy

TWO The German Immigrant Left in the United States [45]
   Stan Nadel

THREE Themes in American Jewish Radicalism [77]
   Paul Buhle

FOUR The Italian-American Left: Transnationalism and the Quest for Unity [119]
   Michael Miller Topp

FIVE The Polish-American Left [148]
   Mary E. Cygan

SIX The Ukrainian Immigrant Left in the United States, 1880–1950 [185]
   Maria Woroby

SEVEN Greek-American Radicalism: The Twentieth Century [207]
   Dan Georgakas

EIGHT The Arab-American Left [233]
   Michael W. Suleiman

NINE The Hidden World of Asian Immigrant Radicalism [256]
   Robert G. Lee

TEN Haitian Life in New York and the Haitian-American Left [289]
   Carole Charles

ELEVEN “El Salvador Is Spanish for Vietnam”: A New Immigrant Left and the Politics of Solidarity [302]
   Van Gosse

Contributors [331]

Name Index [333]

Subject Index [339]