CONTENTS

FOREWORD / Anthony F. C. Wallace ix

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS xi

INTRODUCTION / Robert S. Grumet 1

CHAPTER ONE
Lost Opportunities: Miantonomi and the English in Seventeenth-Century Narragansett Country 13
Paul A. Robinson

CHAPTER TWO
Uncas and the Politics of Contact 29
Eric S. Johnson

CHAPTER THREE
Wyandanch: Sachem of the Montauks 48
John A. Strong

CHAPTER FOUR
The Legacy of Robin Casscinamon: Mashantucket Pequot Leadership in the Historic Period 74
Kevin A. McBride

CHAPTER FIVE
Chief Rawandagon, Alias Robin Hood: Native “Lord of Misrule” in the Maine Wilderness 93
Harald E. L. Prins

CHAPTER SIX
Suscaneman and the Matinecock Lands, 1653–1703 116
Robert S. Grumet

CHAPTER SEVEN
Putting a Face on Colonization: Factionalism and Gender Politics in the Life History of Awashunkes, the “Squaw Sachem” of Saconet 140
Ann Marie Plane
Chapter Eight
“Standing by His Father”: Thomas Waban of Natick, circa 1630–1722

Daniel Mandell

Chapter Nine
Daniel Spotso: A Sachem at Nantucket Island, Massachusetts, circa 1691–1741

Elizabeth A. Little

Chapter Ten
Theyanoguin

Dean R. Snow

Chapter Eleven
Shickellamy, “A Person of Consequence”

James H. Merrell

Chapter Twelve
Moses (Tunda) Tatamy, Delaware Indian Diplomat

William A. Hunter

Chapter Thirteen
Pisquetomen and Tamaqua: Mediating Peace in the Ohio Country

Michael N. McConnell

Chapter Fourteen
Molly Brant: Her Domestic and Political Roles in Eighteenth-Century New York

Lois M. Feister and Bonnie Pulis

Chapter Fifteen
Walking the Medicine Line: Molly Ockett, a Pigwacket Doctor

Bunny McBride and Harald E. L. Prins

References

Contributors