The Legacy of
D'Arcy McNickle

Writer, Historian, Activist

Edited by
John Lloyd Purdy

University of Oklahoma Press
Norman and London
Introduction  John Lloyd Purdy ix

Part One. Origins and Words

Chapter One. D'Arcy McNickle: An Annotated Bibliography of His Published Articles and Book Reviews in a Biographical Context  Dorothy R. Parker 3

Part Two. The Surrounded: The Construction of Vision in McNickle's Best-Known Work

Chapter Two. Rethinking History: A Context for The Surrounded  Birgit Hans 33

Chapter Three. Elements of Traditional Oral Narrative in The Surrounded  Phillip E. Doss 53

Chapter Four. The Surrounded: Listening Between the Lines of Inherited Stories  William Brown 69
Chapter Five. Lost in Translation: McNickle's Tragic Speaking
Robert Evans 85

Chapter Six. Irony of Consent: Hunting and Heroism in D'Arcy McNickle's The Surrounded
Robert F. Gish 102

Part Three. Runner in the Sun: Mythologies of the Times

Chapter Seven. D'Arcy McNickle's Runner in the Sun: Content and Context
Dorothy R. Parker 117

Chapter Eight. Cultural Survival in Runner in the Sun
Lori Burlingame 136

Chapter Nine. A Legend of Culture: D'Arcy McNickle's Runner in the Sun
Jay Hansford C. Vest 152

Part Four. Wind from an Enemy Sky: Wording a Vision for the Future

Birgit Hans 169

Chapter Eleven. Two Humanities: Mediational Discourse in Wind from an Enemy Sky
James Ruppert 188

Alanna Kathleen Brown 207

Notes 229

Bibliography 245

List of Contributors 255

Index 259

viii Contents