Contents

Acknowledgements ................................................. ix
The Contributors ................................................. x
A Note on Malory's Text ........................................... xi
Introduction  by Elizabeth Archibald and A. S. G. Edwards ... xiii

PART I. MALORY IN CONTEXT

1. 'The Hoole Book': Editing and the Creation of Meaning in Malory's Text
   CAROL M. MEALE ........................................... 3

2. Chivalry and the Morte Darthur
   RICHARD BARBER .......................................... 19

3. The Place of Women in the Morte Darthur
   ELIZABETH EDWARDS ....................................... 37

4. Contextualizing Le Morte Darthur: Empire and Civil War
   FELICITY RIDDY ........................................... 55

5. Malory and His Sources
   TERENCE McCARTHY ....................................... 75

6. Language and Style in Malory
   JEREMY SMITH ........................................... 97

7. The Malory Life-Records
   P. J. C. FIELD ........................................... 115

PART II. THE ART OF THE MORTÉ DARTHUR

8. Beginnings: The Tale of King Arthur and King Arthur and the Emperor Lucius
   ELIZABETH ARCHIBALD .................................... 133

9. The Tale of Sir Gareth and The Tale of Sir Lancelot
   BARBARA NOLAN ........................................... 153

10. The Book of Sir Tristram de Lyones
    HELEN COOPER ........................................... 183

11. Malory and the Grail Legend
    JILL MANN ............................................... 203