Contents

List of tables and figure  page vii
Series editors' preface  ix

INTRODUCTION
1. Cabinet ministers and government formation in parliamentary democracies Michael Laver and Kenneth A. Shepsle 3

COALITION SYSTEMS
2. Models of government and the Austrian cabinet Wolfgang C. Müller 15
3. The political role of Norwegian cabinet ministers Kaare Strom 35
4. The Netherlands: ministers and cabinet policy Rudy B. Andeweg and Wilma Bakema 56
5. The political role of cabinet ministers in Ireland Brian Farrell 73
6. Finland: ministerial autonomy, constitutional collectivism, and party oligarchy Jaakko Nousiainen 88
7. Cabinet ministers and policy-making in Belgium: the impact of coalition constraints Arco Timmermans 106
8. The role of cabinet ministers in the French Fourth Republic François Petry 125
9. The political autonomy of cabinet ministers in the French Fifth Republic Jean-Louis Thiébault 139
10. The role of German ministers in cabinet decision making Ferdinand Müller-Rommel 150
11. Cabinet ministers and parliamentary government in Sweden Torbjörn Larsson 169
12. The political role of cabinet ministers in Italy
   Annarita Criscitiello

MAJORITY PARTY GOVERNMENT SYSTEMS
13. Ministerial autonomy in Britain Anthony King
15. The interpersonal dynamics of decision making in Canadian provincial cabinets Graham White

CONCLUSION
17. Cabinet government in theoretical perspective Michael Laver and Kenneth A. Shepsle

Index