European Impact and Pacific Influence

British and German Colonial Policy in the Pacific Islands and the Indigenous Response

EDITED BY
Hermann J. Hiery
AND
John M. MacKenzie

Tauris Academic Studies
I.B.Tauris Publishers
LONDON • NEW YORK
The German Historical Institute
Contents

Glossary x
Abbreviations xi

Foreword
Adolf M. Birke xii

Map xiv

1 Introduction
Hermann J. Hiery and John M. MacKenzie 1

2 Contexts of German Colonialism in Africa:
British Imperialism, German Politics, and the German Administrative Tradition
Woodruff D. Smith 9

PART I Perceptions of Each Other
Hermann J. Hiery 23

3 The Art of the Head-Hunters: Collecting Activity and Recruitment in New Guinea at the Beginning of the Twentieth Century
Markus Schindlbeck 31

4 Myth, Race and Identity in New Zealand
James Belich 44
5. The Colonial Imagination and the Making and Remaking of the Samoan People
   Peter Hempenstall

6. 'The Kava Ceremony is a Prophecy': An Interpretation of the Transition to Christianity in Samoa
   Thomas Bargatzky

7. Zealotry among the Converted: American Board Missionaries in Micronesia, 1852–1919
   Arthur J. Knoll

PART II Impact Unleashed: European Contact and the Environment
   John M. MacKenzie

   J.R. McNeill

9. Acclimatizers: European Environmental Impact in Australia and New Zealand/Aotearoa
   Geoffrey Bolton

10. Papua New Guinea, its Demographic History and Infectious Diseases
    Alfred W. Crosby

PART III Traditional and European Concepts of 'Justice' and their Influence on One Another
    Hermann J. Hiery

11. The Impact of the British on the Tongan Traditional Concept of Justice and Law
    Sione Lātūkefu

12. Colonial Government, 'Justice' and 'the Rule of Law': The Case of German New Guinea
    Peter Sack

13. Colonial Law as Metropolitan Defence: The Curious Case of Australia in New Guinea
    A.M. Healy

14. Defining Separate Spheres: German Rule and Colonial Law in Micronesia
    Gerd Hardach
15 Constitutional Instruments in Kiribati and Tuvalu: A Case Study of Impact and Influence
David J. Murray 259

PART IV Traditional and European Behaviour: Sexuality as a Special Case of Pacific–European Interaction
John M. MacKenzie 275

16 British Missionaries and Sexuality: The Polynesian Legacy and its Aftermath
Niel Gunson 279

17 Germans, Pacific Islanders and Sexuality: German Impact and Indigenous Influence in Melanesia and Micronesia
Hermann J. Hiery 299

18 Re-Reading the White Women’s Protection Ordinance
Amirah Inglis 324

About the Contributors 338

Index 342