Herbert Pilch (ed.)

Orality and Literacy in Early Middle English
Table of Contents

Preface ..................................................................................................................... 7

Françoise Le Saux

Listening to the Manuscript: Editing La3amon's Brut ........................................ 11

Elizabeth J. Bryan

Sir Frederic Madden's Annotations on La3amon's Brut ..................................... 21

Rosamund Allen

Counting Time and Time for Recounting: Narrative Sections in La3amon’s Brut ... 71

Dennis Donahue

Lawman's Formulaic Themes and the Characterization of King Arthur in the Brut ............................................................... 93

Arthur Wayne Glowka

La3amon's Heathens and the Medieval Grapevine ........................................... 113

Herbert Pilch

The Earliest Arthurian Tradition: The Preiddiau Annwfn of the Book of Taliesin .... 147

Ioana I. Petrescu

Wulf and Eadwacer and the 19th Century Romantic Poems .......................... 167

Ursula Schaefer

Twin Collocations in the Early Middle English Lives of the Katherine Group .... 179
Eric Gerald Stanley
Personification Without the Distinction of Capitalization, Mainly in Early Middle English ............ 199

John Frankis
Views of Anglo-Saxon England in Post-Conquest Vernacular Writing ......................... 227