European Union Spatial Policy and Planning

R.H. Williams
Contents

Preface vii
Acknowledgements xi
Abbreviations xiii
Copyright Acknowledgements xvii

Part I Context, institutions and concepts 1

1 Introducing the EU as a jurisdiction and planning subject 3
2 The quest for European union 12
3 The institutions and powers of the EU 30
4 Language and meaning: the Tower of Babel problem 55

Part II Policy sectors 63

5 A chronology of spatial policy development 65
6 Ways of looking at EU space 91
7 The Cohesion and Structural Funds: the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow 114
8 Hands across the border: networking, lobbying and crossborder planning 145
9 Transport and trans-European networks 167
10 Environment policy 184
11 Towards an urban policy 204
12 Europe 2000+ and the state of policy development 218