VICTORIAN URBAN SETTINGS
ESSAYS ON THE NINETEENTH-CENTURY CITY AND ITS CONTEXTS

Edited by
Debra N. Mancoff and D.J. Trela

GARLAND PUBLISHING, INC.
NEW YORK AND LONDON
1996
Contents

LIST OF PLATES .................................................................................................................. vii

PREFACE ............................................................................................................................. xi
Debra N. Mancoff and D.J. Trela

INTRODUCTION ................................................................................................................. 3
An Age of Great Cities
Harold Perkin

MAPPING THE VICTORIAN CITY
1. Commercial Sites: The Early Victorian Development of Cannon Street ...................... 26
   Linda R. Krause
   Mary Burgan
3. Symbols of Success in Suburbia: The Establishment of Artists' Communities in Late Victorian London ............................................................................................... 57
   Joseph F. Lamb

CONSTRUCTING IDENTITY IN AN URBAN SETTING
4. London, Dickens, & the Theatre of Homelessness ............................................................ 74
   Murray Baumgarten
   Edward Jacobs
6. The City, the Country, and Communities of Singing Women: Music in the Novels of Elizabeth Gaskell .................................................................................. 114
   Alisa M. Clapp
7. "Oor Location": Scotswomen Poets and the Transition from Rural to Urban Culture .......... 133
   Florence S. Boos

IMAGING THE VICTORIAN CITY
8. Re-forming London: George Cruikshank and the Victorian Age.............................. 157
   Anne L. Helmreich
9. Photography and the Image of the London Poor .. 179
   Thomas Prasch
10. Midnight Scenes and Social Photographs:
    Thomas Annan's Glasgow ............................... 195
    Ian Spring
    Sarah V. Barnes

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS........................................... 230
INDEX ........................................................................... 235