

SHAKESPEARE'S POLITICAL PAGEANT

Essays in Literature and Politics

Edited by
JOSEPH ALULIS
and
VICKIE SULLIVAN

ROWMAN & LITTLEFIELD PUBLISHERS, INC.

Contents

Preface	vii
Acknowledgments	xi
Part I: Comedies
1 The New Medea: On Portia's Comic Triumph in The Merchant of Venice Michael Zuckert	3
2 Fathers and Children: Matter, Mirth, and Melancholy in As You Like It Joseph Alulis	37
3 Wisdom and the Law: Thoughts on the Political Philosophy of Measure for Measure Barbara Tovey	61
4 The Portrait of Athens in A Midsummer Night's Dream David Lowenthal	77
Part II: Histories
5 Coming Home: The Political Settlement in Shakespeare's King John Christopher Colmo	91
6 The Education of Hal: Henry IV, Parts One and Two Tim Spiekerman	103
7 Princes to Act: Henry V as the Machiavellian Prince of Appearance Vickie Sullivan	125

Part III: Tragedies

8	“This Is Venice”: Politics in Shakespeare’s Othello	155
	Pamela K. Jensen
9	King Lear: The Tragic Disjunction of Wisdom and Power	189
	Paul A. Cantor
10	The Relation of Thought and Action in Macbeth	209
	Timothy Fuller
11	Courage and Impotence in Macbeth	219
	Michael Davis
12	“With Himself at War”: Shakespeare’s Roman Hero and the Republican Tradition	237
	Dennis Bathory
	Index	263
	About the Contributors	275