contents

Acknowledgments iv
Abbreviations v
Preface vii

Part I: The Revolution in Public Management
- Chapter 1: The New Zealand Model: Key Features and Continuing Dilemmas 2
- Chapter 2: The Ideas and Theories Underpinning the New Zealand Model 16

Part II: The Structure of New Zealand’s Public Sector
- Chapter 3: The Framework of Government and the Evolution of the Public Sector 42
- Chapter 4: Institutional Design in the Public Sector 69

Part III: Management at the Centre
- Chapter 5: Senior Management in the Core Public Sector 98
- Chapter 6: The Organisation and Purchasing of Policy Advice 121
- Chapter 7: Public Management in a Bicultural Society 141

Part IV: Management Beyond the Centre
- Chapter 8: The Centre and the Periphery: The Continuing Game 162
- Chapter 9: Management in Local Government 183

Part V: Human Resource Management
- Chapter 10: Managing the Employment Relationship 204
- Chapter 11: Negotiating the Employment Contract 225
- Chapter 12: Equal Employment Opportunities 246

Part VI: Financial Management
- Chapter 13: Departmental Management of Resources 260
- Chapter 14: Accountability and the Collective Interest 280
- Chapter 15: The Role of the Audit Office 296

Part VII: Responsible Management
- Chapter 16: Ethos and Ethics 316
- Chapter 17: Administrative Review and Redress 333

Part VIII: Conclusions
- Chapter 18: An Assessment of the New Zealand Model 350

Appendix 1: A Summary of New Zealand’s Public Sector Reforms 1984–95 367
Appendix 2: The New Zealand Public Service: Striving for Excellence in Serving New Zealand 371

References 372
Index 397