Introduction: Dynamics of Transboundary Interaction in Comparative Perspective
James Scott, Alan Sweedler, Paul Ganster and Wolf-Dieter Eberwein

Borders and Border Regions in a Changing Global Context
Malcolm Anderson
The Political Science of Frontiers
Norris Clement
The Changing Economics of Borders and Border Regions
Pertti Joenniemi
Interregional Cooperation and a New Regionalist Paradigm
Didier Bigo
Security, Borders and the State

Border Regions and Transboundary Cooperation in Europe
James Scott
Dutch-German Euroregions: A Model for Transboundary Cooperation?
Kristian Gerner
The Evolving Political Role of Borders and Border Regions in Central Europe
Veikko Tikkanen and Jyrki Kääkönen
The Evolution of Cooperation in the Kuhmo-Kostamuksha Region of the Finnish-Russian Border
Bohdan Gruchman and Franz Walk
Transboundary Cooperation in the Polish-German Border Region
Zoltán Hajdú
Emerging Conflict or Deepening Cooperation? - The Case of the Hungarian Border Regions
Lyndelle Fairlie
Kaliningrad: A Russian Exclave in Search of New Roles
Transboundary Cooperation Issues in North and Central America

Paul Ganster
On the Road to Interdependence? The United States-Mexico Border Region

Oscar Martinez
Border People and their Cultural Roles: The Case of the US-Mexican Borderlands

Samuel Schmidt
Stereotypes, Culture and Cooperation in the US-Mexico Borderlands

Randy Willoughby
Immigration, Race and Security on the California-Mexico Border

Roger Gibbins
Meaning and Significance of the Canadian-American Border

Pascal O. Girot
Border Regions, Integration and Transborder Conservation Initiatives in Central America

Appendix: Central American Alliance for Sustainable Development

German Summary / Deutsche Zusammenfassung

James Scott

Authors