Postcolonial African Philosophy
A Critical Reader

Edited by
Emmanuel Chukwudi Eze
Bucknell University, Lewisburg, PA

BLACKWELL Publishers
Contents

Notes on Contributors vii

Introduction: Philosophy and the (Post)colonial
Emmanuel Chukwudi Eze 1

PART I Africa and Modern Scientific Reason 23

1 Philosophy, Culture, and Technology in the Postcolonial
Kwame Gyekye 25

2 Is Modern Science an Ethnoscience? Rethinking
Epistemological Assumptions
Sandra Harding 45

3 African Philosophy and Modernity
Peter Amato 71

PART II Africa and Modern Philosophic Reason 101

4 The Color of Reason: The Idea of “Race” in Kant’s
Anthropology
Emmanuel Chukwudi Eze 103

5 The Critique of Eurocentrism and the Practice of African Philosophy
Tsenay Serequeberhan 141

6 Critic of Boers or Africans? Arendt’s Treatment of South
Africa in The Origins of Totalitarianism
Gail Presbey 162

PART III Rebuilding Bridges 181

7 African Philosophy’s Challenge to Continental Philosophy
Robert Bernasconi 183
Contents

8 Understanding African Philosophy from a Non-African Point of View: An Exercise in Cross-cultural Philosophy
   Richard H. Bell
   197

9 Alterity, Dialogue, and African Philosophy
   Bruce Janz
   221

PART IV The Politics of the “Postcolonial”

10 Tragic Dimensions of our Neocolonial “Postcolonial” World
    Lewis Gordon
    241

11 Honor, Eunuchs, and the Postcolonial Subject
    Leonard Harris
    252

12 Postphilosophy, Politics, and “Race”
    John Pittman
    260

13 African Philosophy and the Postcolonial: Some Misleading Abstractions about “Identity”
    D.A. Masolo
    283

PART V Thoughts for a Postcolonial Future

14 Democracy and Consensus in African Traditional Politics: A Plea for a Non-party Polity
    Kwasi Wiredu
    303

15 Democracy or Consensus? A Response to Wiredu
    Emmanuel Chukwudi Eze
    313

16 Of the Good Use of Tradition: Keeping the Critical Perspective in African Philosophy
    Jean-Marie Makang
    324

17 Toward a Critical Theory of Postcolonial African Identities
    Emmanuel Chukwudi Eze
    339

Select Bibliography

Index