Contents

Contributors xiii

ONE Sentencing Reform 3

Sentencing Reform in the United States 6

Sentencing Reform outside the United States 8

TWO Sentencing Reform in the United States 11

National Developments 12

Sentencing Guidelines Are "Alive and Well" in the United States
Richard S. Frase 12

American Bar Association Adopts New Sentencing Standards
Kevin R. Reitz and Curtis R. Reitz 17

Washington State 20

Washington State: A Decade of Sentencing Reform
Roxanne Lieb 20

Washington Prison Population Growth Out of Control
Roxanne Lieb 26

David Boerner 30

Minnesota 35

Minnesota's Sentencing Guidelines—Past and Future
Debra Dailey 35
Prison Population Growing under Minnesota Guidelines
  Richard Frase  40

Minnesota’s Sentencing Guidelines—1995 Update
  Debra Dailey  45

Oregon  49

Sentencing Reform in Oregon
  Kathleen Bogan  49

  Kathleen Bogan and David Factor  53

Pennsylvania  57

The Evolution of Pennsylvania’s Sentencing Guidelines
  John Kramer  57

Pennsylvania’s Sentencing Guidelines—The Process of Assessment and Revision
  John Kramer and Cynthia Kempinen  62

North Carolina  69

North Carolina Prisons Are Growing
  Stevens H. Clarke  69

North Carolina Legislature Considers Sentencing Change
  Robin Lubitz  74

North Carolina Legislature Adopts Guidelines
  Stan C. Proband  77

North Carolina Prepares for Guidelines Sentencing
  Ronald F. Wright  79

North Carolina Avoids Early Trouble with Guidelines
  Ronald F. Wright  84

Delaware  88

Sentencing Reform in Delaware
  Richard Gebelein  88

Voluntary Guidelines Effective in Delaware
  Thomas J. Quinn  92

Other States  94

Sentencing Reform in Colorado—Many Changes, Little Progress
  Marianne Wesson  94

Utah’s Conjoint Guidelines for Sentencing and Parole
  Richard J. Oldroyd  101
Kansas Adopts Sentencing Guidelines
   David Gottlieb 106

Ohio Adopts Determinate Sentencing
   David Diroll 110

Massachusetts, Missouri, and Oklahoma Establish Sentencing Commissions
   Judy Greene 114

THREE Sentencing Reform outside the United States 122

Prison Populations in Western Europe
   André Kuhn 124

England 133
   New Sentencing Laws Take Effect in England
   Andrew Ashworth 133
   England Repeals Key 1991 Sentencing Reforms
   Martin Wasik 136
   England Abandons Unit Fines
   David Moxon 139
   Punitive Policies and Politics Crowding English Prisons
   Rod Morgan 143
   English Sentencing since the Criminal Justice Act 1991
   Andrew Ashworth 146

Australia 148
   Sentencing Reform in Victoria
   Arie Freiberg 148
   Truth in Sentencing in New South Wales
   Angela Gorta 152
   Sentencing and Punishment in Australia in the 1990s
   Arie Freiberg 156

Other English-Speaking Countries 163
   Justice T. M. Thorp 163
   Sentencing Reform in Canada
   Anthony N. Doob 168
   Sentencing in South Africa
   Stephan Terblanche 172
Germany 177

Germany Reduces Use of Prison Sentences
  Thomas Weigend 177

Sentencing and Punishment in Germany
  Hans-Jörg Albrecht 181

Finland 187

Success in Finland in Reducing Prison Use
  Stan C. Proband 187

Sentencing and Punishment in Finland
  Patrik Tönnudd 189

The Netherlands 194

Sentencing and Punishment in the Netherlands
  Peter J.P. Tak 194

Netherlands Successfully Implements Community Service Orders
  Peter J.P. Tak 200

Other European Countries 203

Sentencing in Switzerland
  Martin Killias, André Kuhn, and Simone Rônez 203

Sentencing Reform in Sweden
  Andrew von Hirsch 211

---

FOUR Race and Sentencing 217

Young Black Men and the Criminal Justice System
  Marc Mauer 219

Racial Disparities Getting Worse in U.S. Prisons and Jails
  Michael Tonry 220

Forty-Two Percent of Black D.C. Males, Ages Eighteen to Thirty-Five, under Criminal Justice System Control
  Jerome Miller 225

Fifty-Six Percent of Young Black Males in Baltimore Under Justice System Control
  Jerome Miller 227

Drug Policies Increasing Racial Disparities in U.S. Prisons
  Michael Tonry 230
Drug Policies Causing Racial and Ethnic Differences in Federal Sentencing
   Douglas McDonald and Kenneth E. Carlson  236

Racial Disparities in the Juvenile Justice System
   Carl Pope  240

One in Three Young Black Men Is Ensnared in the Justice System
   Marc Mauer and Tracy Huling  244

FIVE Public Opinion and Sentencing  249

American Attitudes about Punishment: Myth and Reality
   Julian V. Roberts  250

Survey Shows Alabamians Support Alternatives
   John Doble  255

Delawareans Favor Prison Alternatives
   John Doble and Stephen Immerwahr  259

Pennsylvanians Prefer Alternatives to Prison
   Steve Farkas  265

Oregonians Support Alternatives for Nonviolent Offenders
   Jen Kiko Begasse  270

References  277

Acknowledgments  286