The Dynamics of the Dispersed City: Geographic and Planning Perspectives on Waterloo Region

edited by
Pierre Filion, Trudi E. Bunting, Kevin Curtis
Table of Contents

Introduction ................................................................. 1

Chapter 1

Trudi Bunting and Pierre Filion

The Dispersed City: Its Spatial and Temporal Dynamics ............................ 9

- Pre-1945 Period: Inner City Development ........................................... 14
- 1945-1975: Metropolitanism - The Development of the Inner Suburb and Urban Renewal .................................................. 19
- The Post-1975 Period: Dispersion - The Suburban Agglomeration Becomes the Norm .................................................. 27

The Dispersed City ........................................................................ 36

References .............................................................................. 43

Chapter 2

Trudi Bunting

Main Street: The Geography of Waterloo Region and the Evolution of the Dispersed City .............................................. 55

- The Regional Municipality of Waterloo ........................................... 59
- Industrialization and De-Industrialization ...................................... 62
- Centralization, Decentralization, Decline ........................................ 65
- Dispersion ................................................................................... 68
- Main Street in Perspective ................................................................ 79

References .............................................................................. 85

Chapter 3

Pierre Filion and Trudi Bunting

Space and Place: The Social Geography of the Dispersed City ............. 89

- The Evolution of Urban Social Geography ......................................... 90
- Methodology .................................................................................. 95
- The Urban Social Geography of Waterloo Region, 1991 ...................... 96

Social Geography: Waterloo Region and Beyond ................................ 104

Conclusions .............................................................................. 108

References .............................................................................. 109
Table of Contents

Chapter 4

Carlton Stewart

Managing Growth: A Regional Planning Perspective

- The Making of Regional Government in Waterloo
- Issues Specific to the Regional Plan
- Why the Need for a Review?
- Towards a New Plan - Evaluation of the Regional Official Policies Plan
- Evaluating the Growth Management Policies of the Regional Official Policies Plan
- The Plan Preparation Process
- Selection of a Growth Management Strategy
- Highlights of the New Plan
- Implementation of the Policies
- Conclusion
- References

Chapter 5

Kevin Curtis

Revitalizing Kitchener's CBD: Public Planning Initiatives and Effects

- A Chronology of CBD Revitalization Initiatives
  - 1961-1971
  - 1971-1981
- Assessing the Effects of the CBD Revitalization Initiatives
- Has Kitchener's CBD Been Revitalized?
- Why Did CBD Revitalization Planning Fail in Kitchener?
- Prospects for Kitchener's CBD
- References

Chapter 6

Julie Schultz and Kevin Curtis

Responses to Deindustrialization: Adaptive Re-use in the Breithaupt Street Industrial Area

- The Context of Redevelopment
- Land Use Changes in the Breithaupt Street Industrial Area, 1960-1995
- Municipal Planning Responses
- Implementing the Adaptive Re-Use Strategies
Chapter 7
Scott Conrad
Recycled Suburbs: The Case of Kitchener's Inner Suburban Area

Inner Suburbia: A Quick Definition, Kitchener Census Metropolitan Area (CMA)
Methodology
The Evolution of the Inner Suburb: Who Lives There?
Conclusions
References

Chapter 8
Elaine Miller
Women's Accessibility in the Contemporary City:
A New Suburb Case Study

The Suburban Female Ghetto
Methodology
Respondent Profile
Women's Accessibility and Activity Patterns
Women's Accessibility and Stress in the Urban Environment
References

Chapter 9
Pierre Filion and Tod Rutherford
Manufacturing Miracles? The Restructuring of Waterloo Region's Manufacturing

Waterloo Region's Industrial History
Waterloo Region Manufacturing Since 1981
Economic Cycles and Restructuration
Waterloo Region's Comparative Advantages
Geographic Specialization of Manufacturing Within Waterloo Region
Manufacturing and Waterloo Region's Dispersed Urban Structure
The Waterloo Region Economic Miracle?
Conclusions
References
Chapter 10
A. Hecht and T. Bunting
Birth Pains of a New Regional Shopping Centre,
Cambridge Mall: Theories, Tools and Speculations of the Geographer in the Retail Planning Forum 273
- Metropolitan Retail Structure: Cambridge Mall
- and Environs 274
- The Case Before the Ontario Municipal Board 290
- Post OMB Events and Interpretation 292
- Conclusions: Birth Pains or Miscarriage 295
- References 299

Chapter 11
M. L. Thomson and C.J.A. Mitchell
Counterurbanization in Waterloo Region: The Lure of the Countryside 303
- Wilmot Township 303
- Counterurbanization and the Rural Urban Fringe 306
- Methodology: Who Lives in Wilmot Township
- and Why 312
- The Evidence: Counterurbanization in
- Wilmot Township 313
- Linkages with the Built-up Urban Areas 315
- Residential Decisions: Why People Move to
- Wilmot Township 318
- Conclusion 322
- References 323

Chapter 12
Wendy Fisher, Pierre Filion and Roger Suffling
Meeting Environmental and Housing Needs Through Compromise: Alternative Development Standards
in the Regional Municipality of Waterloo 329
- Alternative Development Standards 330
- Obstacles to Alternative Development Standards 333
- Alternative Development Standards in the Regional
- Municipality of Waterloo 336
- Methodology 339
- Attitudes Toward Alternative Development Standards 341
- Resistance to Alternative Development Standards 343
- Prospects for Innovative Forms of Residential
- Development 346
References ................................................................. 349

Chapter 13
Susan Wismer

Sustaining Communities: An Historic Perspective on
Women’s Involvement in Kitchener-Waterloo .............. 355
Women and Community in Kitchener-Waterloo .......... 357
Busy Berlin ............................................................ 359
The Moral Reform Movement and the Founding of the YWCA ......................................................... 360
The Founding of the Berlin YWCA ............................ 362
Creating Community Then...................................... 365
And Building Community Now.............................. 366
Women’s Community Work and Sustainability ............. 368
References ............................................................ 370

Chapter 14
Paule Ouellet

Environmentally Sensitive Policy Areas as a Tool for Environmental Protection ......................... 373
Environmentally Sensitive Policy Areas and Their Use in the Regional Municipality of Waterloo .......... 374
Methodology .......................................................... 380
Intrusions Within Environmentally Sensitive Policy Areas ........................................................................ 381
Habitat Loss in the Three Case Studies ....................... 386
How Effective are Environmentally Sensitive Policy Areas as Instruments of Conservation ................. 391
Recommendations ..................................................... 393
The Impact of Environmentally Sensitive Policy Areas on Urban Development ............................ 394
Conclusion ............................................................... 395
References ............................................................... 396