CONTENTS

List of illustrations .......................... page vii
List of tables ................................... viii
Notes on contributors ........................ ix
Preface ........................................ xi
List of abbreviations ........................ xii

Part I: Contextualising the parish

1. Introduction ................................. 3
   Katherine French, Gary Gibbs, and Beat Kümin

2. The English parish in a European perspective .......................... 15
   Beat Kümin

Part II: Parochial sources: their variety, potential and limitations

3. Medieval parish churches in the City of London: the archaeological evidence .......................... 35
   John Schofield

   Margaret Clark

5. Churchwardens’ accounts of early modern England and Wales: some problems to note, but much to be gained .......................... 74
   Andrew Foster

6. Popular religion and the parish register 1538–1603 .......................... 94
   Will Coster

Part III: Community action and expectation

7. Parochial fund-raising in late medieval Somerset .......................... 115
   Katherine French

8. The parish, piety, and patronage in late medieval East Anglia: the evidence of rood screens .......................... 133
   Eamon Duffy

   Gary Gibbs
Contents

10 Reformation and resistance in Thames/Severn parishes: the dramatic witness 178
   Alexandra F. Johnston and Sally-Beth MacLean

Part IV: Groups within the parish

11 Marginality and the assimilation of foreigners in the lay parish community: the case of Sandwich 203
   Judy Ann Ford

12 Religious policy and parish 'conformity': Cratfield's lands in the sixteenth century 217
   Ken Farnhill

13 St Michael's, Gloucester, 1540–80: the cost of conformity in sixteenth-century England 230
   Caroline Litzenberger

14 Women and the London parishes 1500–1620 250
   Claire S. Schen

Index 269