The Poetry of Ted Hughes: Language, Illusion and Beyond

Paul Bentley

Longman
London and New York
Contents

Acknowledgements vii
Dedication viii

Introduction
Hughes and the Movement 2
The East European Influence 3
Hughes and Myth 4
Hughes and Shamanism 6

1. Early Hughes 15
   ‘Archaic Energies’ 15
   Language, Narcissism and Emptiness 21
   ‘A Utility General-Purpose Style’ 26
   The Influence of Sylvia Plath 27
   Hughes and Romanticism 30
   Language and Mysticism 35

2. Crow 39
   Carnival and Trickster 39
   The ‘Dialogic’ Word 44
   Through the Looking Glass 47
   Depression: A Style 50

3. Gaudete 58
   ‘Some Kind of Tunnel’ 58
   Lens and Landscape 60
   The Use of Stereotypes 62
   The Double 63
   Language and the Double 64
   ‘Adventure Time’ in Gaudete 66
   The Double’s Defeat 69
   The Language of Gaudete 71
   The Grotesque in Gaudete 72
   The Epilogue Poems and the ‘Future Anterior’ 73