POLITICAL REFORM IN BRITAIN, 1886-1996

Themes, Ideas, Policies

Universitätsverlag Dr. N. Brockmeyer
Bochum 1997
Contents

Acknowledgements iii

Introduction v

1 A Question of Balances? The Debates about the British Constitution in the Twentieth Century
Peter Catterall 1

2 The Decline and Rise of Radicalism: The Political Parties and Reform, 1886-1996
Wolfram Kaiser 35

I. The Unelected Institutions

3 Lords and Monarchy in late Victorian and Edwardian Britain: Democracy and the unelected state
Andrew Adonis 67

4 House of Lords and Monarchy: British majoritarian democracy and the current reform debate on its pre-democratic institutions
André Kaiser 81

II. Women in Society and Politics

5 Reform Politics, Gender Relations and Women's Social Role in Circum-1900 Britain
Ulrike Jordan and Jutta Schwarzkopf 111

6 "They cannot choose but to be women." Stereotypes of Femininity and Ideals of Womanliness in Late Victorian and Edwardian Britain
Angela Schwarz 131
III. Nationality Conflicts and Territorial Government

8 "Home Rule all round": Experiments in Regionalising Great Britain, 1886-1914
Elgie Rembold 169

9 Conceptual Lenses and Territorial Government in Britain
James Mitchell 193

10 The British State and Northern Ireland: Can the National Question be Reformed?
Brian Girvin 227

Select Bibliography 257

Notes on the Contributors 263