Approaches to Teaching the Novels of Toni Morrison

Edited by

Nellie Y. McKay
and

Kathryn Earle

The Modern Language Association of America
New York 1997
CONTENTS

Preface to the Series vii

Preface to the Volume ix

PART ONE: MATERIALS Nellie Y. McKay

Introduction 3
The Novels 3
Other Works 4
Articles and Essays 4
Playing in the Dark 6
Interviews and Nobel Prize Lecture 8
The Black Book 9
Further Readings for Students 9
The Instructor's Library 10
Reference Works 11
Book-Length Critical Studies 12
Essay Collections 16
Uncollected Critical Essays 17
Background Readings 17
Audiovisual Materials 18

PART TWO: APPROACHES

"Out There, in the World": Race and Identity in the Classroom

Tracing and Erasing: Race and Pedagogy in The Bluest Eye
Rafael Pérez-Torres 21

Teaching Controversy: The Bluest Eye in the Multicultural Classroom
Kathryn Earle 27

"Raked with Wonder": A White Instructor Teaches Sula
Toni A. H. McNaron 34

Beyond the Bitterness of History: Teaching Beloved
Carolyn C. Denard 40

Marginality and Community in Beloved
Sharon P. Holland and Michael Awkward 48

"The Thing out of Which I Come": Morrison Contextualized

Authority, Literacy, and Modernism in The Bluest Eye
Thomas H. Fick and Eva Gold 56
Song of Solomon: Modernism in the Afro-American Studies Classroom 63
  Sandra Adell

Flying Home: Folklore, Intertextuality, and Song of Solomon 68
  James C. Hall

Tar Baby: Philosophizing Blackness 73
  Madelyn Jablon

Using History as Artifact to Situate Beloved's Unknown Woman: 77
  Margaret Garner
  Angelita Reyes

Jazz: Morrison and the Music of Tradition 86
  Craig Werner

Colors and Sounds: Language, Style, and Technique 93
  Terry Otten

Sula: Imagery, Figurative Language, and Symbols 99
  Elizabeth B. House

Reading in the Dark: Knowledge and Vision in Song of Solomon 106
  Linda J. Krumholz

Jazz: From Music to Literature 113
  Anthony J. Berret

"Holes and Spaces": Interpretive Strategies 118
  Gurleen Grewal

An African-Based Reading of Sula 127
  Gay Wilentz

Songs of the Ancestors: Family in Song of Solomon 135
  Keith E. Byerman

Telling Stories: A Cultural Studies Approach to Tar Baby 141
  Marilyn Sanders Mobley

Teaching Tar Baby 147
  Ann Jurecic and Arnold Rampersad

Morrison's Jazz: "A Knowing So Deep" 154
  Judylyn S. Ryan

Contributors and Survey Participants 161

Works Cited 163

Index of Morrison's Novels 175

Index of Names 177