The Material Culture of Gender

The Gender of Material Culture

EDITED BY

Katharine Martinez
and Kenneth L. Ames

Henry Francis du Pont Winterthur Museum
WINTERTHUR, DELAWARE

Distributed by University Press of New England
HANOVER AND LONDON
Contents

Introduction: The Power of Gender and the Gender of Power
Michael Kimmel
Professor of Sociology
State University of New York at Stony Brook

Of Mice and Men: Gender Identity and Collecting
Russell W. Belk
N. Eldon Tanner Professor of Business Administration
University of Utah
Melanie Wallendorf
Professor of Marketing
University of Arizona

The Gendering of Infants' and Toddlers' Clothing in America
Jo B. Paoletti
Associate Professor of American Studies
University of Maryland, College Park

Time, Technophobia, and the Transition of Gender Definitions
John Stimson
Professor of Sociology
William Paterson College
Ardyth Stimson
Professor of Sociology
Kean College
Contents

Gender and Creative Production: A Social History Lesson in Art Evaluation
Gayle R. Davis
Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs and Associate Professor of Women’s Studies
Wichita State University

From Cult to Profession: Domestic Women in Search of Equality
Cheryl Robertson
Curator of Exhibitions and Public Programs
Museum of Our National Heritage

Fatherland: Masculinity, Technology, and the Doll Economy, 1860–1908
Miriam Formanek-Brunell
Associate Professor
University of Missouri, Kansas City

Gender and Genius: The Auto Industry and Femininity
Virginia Scharff
Associate Professor of History
University of New Mexico

The Gendered Environment of the Corporate Workplace, 1880–1930
Angel Kwolek-Folland
Associate Professor of History
University of Kansas

Putting Things in Order: The Domestic Aesthetic of Wilder’s Little House Books
Ann Romines
Associate Professor of English
George Washington University

Women Folk and Popular Arts: The Need for a Grounded Theory
Elaine J. Lawless
Professor of English
University of Missouri-Columbia
Contents

Feminist Readings of Folk Material Culture Studies 217
Joyce Ice
Assistant Director
Museum of International Folk Art

Intimacy and Objects: A Proxemic Analysis of Gender-Based Response to the Material World 237
Beverly Gordon
Professor
University of Wisconsin-Madison

Mudwomen and Whitemen: A Meditation on Pueblo Potteries and the Politics of Representation 253
Barbara A. Babcock
Regents Professor of Cultural Studies
University of Arizona

The Ritualization of Male Friendship and Virtue in Nineteenth-Century Fraternal Organizations 281
Barbara Franco
Director
Historical Society of Washington, D.C.

The Masculine Bias of the Vernacular 299
Michael Aaron Rockland
Professor of American Studies
Rutgers University

Space, Cultural Authority, and the Imagery of Feminine Influence 311
Angela L. Miller
Associate Professor
Washington University in St. Louis

Gifts of Wild Game: Masculine and Feminine in Nineteenth-Century Hunting Imagery 337
Ruth Irwin Weidner
Professor of Art History
West Chester University