Critical Ethics
Text, Theory and Responsibility

Edited by

Dominic Rainsford
Lecturer in English
University of Aarhus
Denmark

and

Tim Woods
Lecturer in English and American Studies
University of Wales
Aberystwyth
Contents

Acknowledgements vii

Notes on Contributors viii

Introduction: Ethics and Intellectuals 1
_Dominic Rainsford and Tim Woods_

Part I: The Politics of Ethics 21

1. What Price Collaboration? The Case of F. R. Leavis 23
   _Michael Bell_

2. Imagining the Centre 37
   _Geoffrey Galt Harpham_

Part II: Ethics and History 53

3. Ethics, Hermeneutics and Philosophy of Science 55
   _Christopher Norris_

4. Flaws: James, Nussbaum, Miller, Levinas 77
   _Robert Eaglestone_

5. The Original Traumatism: Levinas and Psychoanalysis 88
   _Simon Critchley_

6. Spectres of History: Ethics and Postmodern Fictions of Temporality 105
   _Tim Woods_

Part III: The Construction of Identity 123

7. The Ethics of Biography and Autobiography 125
   _Larry Lockridge_

8. The Ethics of Queer Theory 141
   _Colleen Lamos_

9. Ethics, Value and the Politics of Recognition 152
   _David Parker_
Contents

10 Moral Synonymy: John Stuart Mill and the Ethics of Style
Dan Burnstone 169

Part IV: Ethics and the State of the Humanities 185
11 The Benefit of Doubt: The Ethics of Reading
Lori Branch West 187

12 Care of the Self or Care of the Other? Towards a Poststructuralist Ethics of Pedagogy
Margaret Toye 203

13 The Ethics of the Voice
Steven Connor 220

Part V: Bosnia and the Gulag: Literature as Witness 239
14 Testimony as Art: Varlam Shalamov’s ‘Condensed Milk’
Leona Toker 241

15 Cosmopolitanism as Resistance: Fragmented Identities, Women’s Testimonial and the War in Yugoslavia
Anne Cubilié 257

Select Bibliography 277

Index 280