Plantation Society and Race Relations

The Origins of Inequality

EDITED BY Thomas J. Durant, Jr. and J. David Knottnerus
Contents

Preface xi
Acknowledgments xv
Introduction xvii

I Theoretical Perspectives

1. The Slave Plantation Revisited: A Sociological Perspective
   Thomas J. Durant, Jr. 3

2. The Slave Plantation System from a Total Institution Perspective
   J. David Knottnerus, David L. Monk, and Edward Jones 17

3. Plantation-Style Social Control: Oppressive Social Structures in the Slave Plantation System
   Donald L. Yates 29

4. The Construction of Racial Meaning by Blacks and Whites in Plantation Society
   Beverly M. John 41

II Social Institutions

   Rupe Simms 53
Frances Staten

7. “I Looked for Home Elsewhere”: Black Southern Plantation Families, 1790-1940 77
Lenus Jack, Jr.

8. The Profitability of Slavery: A Review of the Classical Economic Position 89
Donald R. Andrews and Ralph D. Christy

9. Law and Race in the Slave Plantation System 101
Joyce M. Plummer

III Race, Gender, and Social Inequality

10. Plantation Slavery among Native Americans: The Creation of a Red, White, and Black America 113
Thomas J. Durant, Jr. and Nicole Moliere

11. Gender Roles in Slave Plantations 125
Julia Burkart

12. Status Structures and Ritualized Relations in the Slave Plantation System 137
J. David Knottnerus

13. The Social Demography of Plantation Slavery 149
Ollie Gary Christian

IV Social Changes and Social Transformations

14. The Plantation Lifeworld of the Old Natchez District: 1840-1880 165
Ronald L. F. Davis

15. The Social Transformation of Plantation Society 181
Clarence R. Talley

16. Plantations without Slaves: The Legacy of Louisiana Plantation Culture 193
Katherine Bankole
17. "Gone with the Wind" versus the Holocaust Metaphor:
Louisiana Plantation Narratives in Black and White
Jean Muteba Rahier and Michael Hawkins

V Conclusions

Conclusions and Suggestions for Future Research
Bibliography
Index
About the Contributors