W. Dennis Keating
Norman Krumholz
Editors

REBUILDING URBAN NEIGHBORHOODS

Achievements, Opportunities, and Limits

Cities & Planning

SAGE Publications
International Educational and Professional Publisher
Thousand Oaks  London  New Delhi
CONTENTS

Series Editors’ Introduction xi
Preface xiii
Acknowledgments xv

1. Introduction 1
   W. Dennis Keating
   The Decline of Urban Neighborhoods 2
   Federal Intervention 4
   Federal Cutbacks 5
   Cities and Distressed Neighborhoods: Case Studies 7
   Conclusion 13

2. Federal Policy and Poor Urban Neighborhoods 14
   W. Dennis Keating
   Introduction 14
   The Progressive Era 15
3. Atlanta: Peoplestown—Resilience and Tenacity Versus Institutional Hostility

Larry Keating

Early History
Expressways and Neighborhood Destruction I
Urban Renewal
Peoplestown Organizes
Expressways and Neighborhood Destruction II
The Olympic Stadium
Summerhill's Deal With the Regime
Peoplestown Mobilizes Opposition
The Consequences of Opposition
Indigenous Development
Future Prospects

Robert A. Catlin

Introduction
Background
Mayor Randy Primas Tries to Rebuild Camden
The Administration of Dr. Arnold Webster
How Camden Might Improve Its Record in Urban Revitalization
Conclusion
5. Chicago: Community Building on Chicago’s West Side—
North Lawndale, 1960-1997

Robert Giloth

Introduction 67
A History of North Lawndale 69
Civil Rights and Community Organizing 71
Planning and a Community Development Corporation 74
Faith, Markets, and Community Building 77
Lawndale Christian Development Corporation 78
Homan Square 79
The Steans Family Foundation 80
North Lawndale’s Past and Future 82

6. Cleveland: The Hough and Central Neighborhoods—
Empowerment Zones and Other Urban Policies

Norman Krumholz

Cleveland: An Overview 87
Hough 90
Central 95
Empowerment Zones 99

7. Detroit: Staying the Course—Detroit’s Struggle to Revitalize the Inner City

Mittie O. Chandler

Detroit’s Revitalization Experience: Common Themes 106
Urban Redevelopment 106
Urban Renewal 107
The War on Poverty 108
Model Cities 110
Community Development Block Grant Program 112
Public Housing 114
The Empowerment Zone 115
Private Sector Partnerships 117
Citizen Participation 118
Prognosis 119
Can Archer Deliver? 120
Can Programs Make a Difference? 120
The City and Support of Poor Neighborhoods 122
8. East St. Louis, Illinois: Promoting Community Development Through Empowerment Planning

Kenneth Reardon

The Economic Collapse of East St. Louis 124
Initiating the Empowerment Process in Winstanley/Industry Park 127
Formulating Neighborhood Goals for Winstanley/Industry Park 128
Creating the Illinois Avenue Playground 129
Devising the Neighborhood Stabilization Plan 131
Establishing the East St. Louis Farmers Market 132
Improving Winstanley/Industry Park's Housing Stock 134
Building Organizational Capacity for WIPNO 136
Predicting the Future of Local Community-Based Planning Efforts 136
Conclusions 138

9. Los Angeles: Borders to Poverty—Empowerment Zones and Spatial Politics of Development

Ali Modarres

Introduction 140
Supplemental Empowerment Zone (SEZ) Defined 141
Los Angeles Poverty Areas and the Emergent Supplemental Empowerment Zone 144
Development Efforts and Their Failure Pattern 152
Summary Discussion and Conclusion 155

10. Miami: The Overtown Neighborhood—A Generation of Revitalization Strategies Gone Awry

Dennis E. Gale

Immigration, Politics, and Economics in Miami and Dade County 161
Discrimination, Segregation, and Interracial Mob Violence 164
Historical Patterns, Urban Renewal, and Highways 166
Population and Social Characteristics in Overtown 166
Stimulating Community Reinvestment 168
Conclusion: Of Power, Purpose, and Persistence 171
A Future for Overtown? 174
11. New York: Challenges Facing Neighborhoods in Distress
   Thomas Angotti
   Introduction 177
   The Role of Government 179
   The Most Distressed Neighborhoods: The Case of Red Hook 184
   Act Three: The Uncertain Future 187
   The Empowerment Zone 189

12. Future Prospects for Distressed Urban Neighborhoods
   W. Dennis Keating and Norman Krumholz
   Introduction 191
   What Have We Learned? 192
   Progressive Municipal Government 193
   Federal Devolution 194
   The Urban Policy Debate 195
   People Versus Places Revisited 196
   Rebuilding Distressed Urban Neighborhoods 198
   The Future Outlook 202

   References 205
   Index 217
   About the Authors 233