List of illustrations

| vii |

Notes on contributors

| viii |

Acknowledgements

| xi |

1 Introduction

Edward Larrissy

| 1 |

2 From sublimity to indeterminacy: new world order or aftermath of Romantic ideology

Paul Hamilton

| 13 |

3 Turnabouts in taste: the case of late Turner

William Vaughan

| 29 |

4 ‘Conquered good and conquering ill’: femininity, power and Romanticism in Emily Brontë’s poetry

Emma Francis

| 47 |

5 A sense of endings: some Romantic and postmodern comparisons

J. Drummond Bone

| 73 |

6 A being all alike? Teleotropic syntax in Ashbery and Wordsworth

Geoff Ward

| 86 |

7 Virtual Romanticism

Fred Botting

| 98 |

8 The sins of the fathers: the persistence of Gothic

John Fletcher

| 113 |
CONTENTS

9 Romantic irony and the postmodern sublime: Geoffrey Hill and 'Sebastian Arrurruz'  141
Andrew Michael Roberts

10 'Uprooting the rancid stalk': transformations of Romanticism in Ashbery and Ash  157
Stephen Clark

11 Postmodernism/fin de siècle: defining 'difference' in late twentieth-century poetics  179
Marjorie Perloff

Notes  210
Index  231