CONTENTS

List of illustrations vii
List of contributors viii
Preface and acknowledgements xi

1 New geographies of illness, impairment and disability 1
HESTER PARR AND RUTH BUTLER

2 The body, disability and Le Corbusier's conception of the radiant environment 25
ROB IMRIE

3 The moral topography of intemperance 46
MICHAEL L. DORN

4 Rhetoric and place in the 'mental deficiency' asylum 70
DEBORAH CARTER PARK AND JOHN RADFORD

5 Can technology overcome the disabling city? 98
BRENDAN GLEESON

6 Body troubles: women, the workplace and negotiations of a disabled identity 119
ISABEL DYCK

7 Workspaces: refiguring the disability–employment debate 138
EDWARD HALL
CONTENTS

8 Autobiographical notes on chronic illness 155
  PAMELA MOSS

9 What it means to be a man: the body, masculinities, disability 167
  GILL VALENTINE

10 Bodies and psychiatric medicine: interpreting different geographies of mental health 181
  HESTER PARR

11 Double the trouble or twice the fun? Disabled bodies in the gay community 203
  RUTH BUTLER

12 Without these walls: a geography of mental ill-health in a rural environment 221
  CHRISTINE MILLIGAN

13 Accommodating difference: social justice, disability and the design of affordable housing 240
  FLORA GATHORNE-HARDY

14 ‘Caught in the Cinderella trap’: narratives of disabled parents and young carers 256
  JANE STABLES AND FIONA SMITH

15 Body politics: disabled women’s activism in Canada and beyond 269
  VERA CHOUINARD

Index 295