Rushdie’s
MIDNIGHT’S CHILDREN
A Book of Readings

Edited by
Meenakshi Mukherjee

Pencraft International
DELHI-110052
Contents

Acknowledgements 5

1 Introduction
Meenakshi Mukherjee 9

2 Midnight’s Children and the Allegory of History
Neil Ten Kortenaar 28

3 History as Gossip in Midnight’s Children
Rukmini Bhaya Nair 49

4 Salman the Funtoosh: Magic Bilingualism in Midnight’s Children
Harish Trivedi 69

5 The Art of Suspense: Rushdie’s 1001 (Mid-)Nights
Nancy E. Batty 95

6 Midnight’s Children and Tristram Shandy
Robert Alter 112
Saleem Fathered by Oskar: Intertextual Strategies in Midnight’s Children and The Tin Drum
Patricia Merivale
116

The Indian English Novel: Kim and Midnight’s Children
Richard Cronin
134

Midnight’s Children and Its Indian Con-Texts
Mujeebuddin Syed
149

Woman, Nation, and Narration in Midnight’s Children
Nalini Natarajan
165

Victim into Protagonist? Midnight’s Children and the Post-Rushdie National Narratives of the Eighties
Josna E. Rege
182

‘Doing the Dangerous Thing’: An Interview with Salman Rushdie
T. Vijay Kumar
212

Works by Salman Rushdie
228

Select Bibliography
229

Contributors
232