Contents

Introduction vii
Brook Memoir by Alan Shelston ix
List of Contributors xiii

Andreas Fischer
Lexical Gaps, Cognition and Linguistic Change 1

Gabriella Rundblad and David B. Kronenfeld
Folk-Etymology: Haphazard Perversion or Shrewd Analogy? 19

Päivi Koivisto-Alanko

Christian J. Kay
Historical Semantics and Historical Lexicography: will the twain ever meet? 53

Julie Coleman
Strange Linguists: the Cant and Slang Dictionary Tradition 69

Maurizio Gotti
Lexical Choices in an Early Galilean Translation 87

Carole P. Biggam
Grund to Hrof: Aspects of the Old English Semantics of Building and Architecture 103

Heli Tissari
Five Hundred Years of Love: a Prototype-Semantic Analysis 127

Louise Sylvester
The Vocabulary of Consent in Middle English 157
CONTENTS

Claire Cowie
The Discourse Motivations for Neologising: Action Nominalization in the History of English 179

R.W. McConchie
The Vernacularization of the Negative Prefix Dis-in Early Modern English 209

Brook Symposium Edited by Christian Kay 229

Author and Subject Index 241