Rhetorical Invention and Religious Inquiry

NEW PERSPECTIVES

Yale University Press
New Haven & London
Contents

Introduction, by Walter Jost and Wendy Olmsted 1

Part I  Coming to Faith in Rhetoric 9

1 The Word as History: Sacred and Profane, by Walter J. Ong, S.J. 15

2 Kenneth Burke's Religious Rhetoric: "God-Terms" and the Ontological Proof, by Wayne C. Booth 25

Appendix: Sensation/Memory/Imitation/Story, by Kenneth Burke 40

3 The Philosophical Foundations of Sacred Rhetoric, by Debora K. Shuger 47

4 Invention, Emotion, and Conversion in Augustine's Confessions, by Wendy Olmsted 65

5 Rhetorical Theology: Charity Seeking Charity, by Marjorie O'Rourke Boyle 87

6 Rhetoric, Conscience, and the Claim of Religion, by Walter Jost 97
Contents

Part II Speaking of God 131

7 Erasmus: Rhetorical Theologian, by Manfred Hoffmann 136
8 Naming God, by Paul Ricoeur 162
9 Prophetic Rhetoric and Mystical Rhetoric, by David Tracy 182
10 Apophatic Analogy: On the Language of Mystical Unknowing and Being-Toward-Death, by Thomas A. Carlson 196

Part III The Rhetoric of Excess, Difference, and the Sublime 219

11 Machiavellian Rhetoric in Paradise Lost, by Victoria Kahn 223
12 Rhetoric, Ideology, and Idolatry in the Writings of Emmanuel Levinas, by Susan E. Shapiro 254
13 Theological Reflections on the Hyperbolic Imagination, by Stephen H. Webb 279

Part IV Rhetoric and Community 301

14 Koinonia and the Friendship Between Rhetoric and Religion, by Kathy Eden 305
16 The Rhetoric of Philosemitism, by Mark Krupnick 356
17 Performing Faith: The Peaceable Rhetoric of God's Church, by James Fodor and Stanley Hauerwas 381

Contributors 415
Acknowledgments 417
Index 419