Toleration and religious identity

The Edict of Nantes and its implications in France, Britain and Ireland

Ruth Whelan and Carol Baxter
EDITORS

FOUR COURTS PRESS
Contents

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS 9
LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS 10
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS 11
EDITORS’ NOTE 12
LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS 13
CHRONOLOGY 16

INTRODUCTION

1 The other '98
   Ruth Whelan
   21

I: COMMEMORATION AND IDENTITY

2 From the Edict of Nantes to ecumenism
   Jean Delumeau
   Translated by Ruth Whelan and Carol Baxter
   41

3 Identity and commemoration: French Protestants and the quartercentenary of Edict of Nantes
   Yves Bizeul
   Translated by Ruth Whelan and Carol Baxter
   54

II: WAR AND PEACE

4 Identity and violence: French Protestants and the early Wars of Religion
   Denis Crouzet
   Translated by Ruth Whelan and Carol Baxter
   73

5 ‘Peace must come from us’: friendship pacts between the confessions during the Wars of Religion
   Olivier Christin
   Translated by Ruth Whelan and Carol Baxter
   92
III: EDICTS OF PACIFICATION

6 Religious or secular? The Edict of Nantes, reformation and state formation in late sixteenth-century France 107
  Bernard Cottret

7 An Edict and its antecedents: the pacification of Nantes and political culture in later sixteenth-century France 128
  Mark Greengrass

IV: AN INTOLERANT TOLERATION

8 Intolerance, friendship and urbanity: Balzac and his Huguenot correspondents 149
  Olivier Millet
  Translated by Ruth Whelan and Carol Baxter

9 Pluralism, persecution and toleration in France and Britain in the seventeenth century 166
  John Miller

10 Repressive toleration: the Huguenots in early eighteenth-century Dublin 179
  Ruth Whelan

V: TOLERATION

11 The Enlightenment and toleration 199
  Alan Kors

12 Toleration in later eighteenth-century Ireland: Voltaire and the Dublin and Hibernian magazines, 1762–84 210
  Graham Gargett

VI: TOLERATION AND RECONCILIATION

13 Conviction and toleration: a theological and ethical appraisal 233
  Alain Blancy

14 Towards a culture of tolerance 249
  Alan D. Falconer

15 Moving beyond sectarianism: religion, conflict, and reconciliation in contemporary Northern Ireland 262
  Cecelia Clegg and Joseph Liechty

GLOSSARY 277
BIBLIOGRAPHY 280
INDEX 297