Contents

Preface ix
List of Contributors xi
Publisher’s Acknowledgements xii
General Editor’s Preface xiii

Introduction: sociolinguistic perspectives on small talk 1
Justine Coupland

Part I  Locating small talk theoretically 27

1 Doing collegiality and keeping control at work: small talk in government departments 32
Janet Holmes
2 Institutional identity-work: a better lens 62
Karen Tracy and Julie M. Naughton
3 Mutually captive audiences: small talk and the genre of close-contact service encounters 84
Michael McCarthy
4 Silence and small talk 110
Adam Jaworski

Part II  Procedural aspects: participants’ orientations to and organisation of small talk 133

5 Calling just to keep in touch: regular and habitualised telephone calls as an environment for small talk 137
Paul Drew and Kathy Chilton
6 Talk about the weather: small talk, leisure talk and the travel industry 163
Nikolas Coupland and Virpi Ylänne-McEwen
7 Social rituals, formulaic speech and small talk at the supermarket checkout 183
Koenraad Kuiper and Marie Flindall

Part III Small talk, sociability and social cohesion 209
8 Gossipy events at family dinners: negotiating sociability, presence and the moral order 213
Shoshana Blum-Kulka
9 Small talk and subversion: female speakers backstage 241
Jennifer Coates

Part IV Professional and commercial applications 265
10 Sociable talk in women’s health care contexts: two forms of non-medical talk 269
Sandy L. Ragan
11 Small talk in service dialogues: the conversational aspects of transactional telephone talk 288
Christine Cheepen

Index 313