Contents

Introduction viii
Barbara I. Dewey

Campus Strategies

1. Information Literacy: Fluency Across and Beyond the University
   Lizabeth A. Wilson
   1

2. Strategies to Make the Library an Instructional Partner on Campus
   Sally Kalin and Loanne Snavely
   18

3. The Principle Is Partnership: General Education Library Instruction at Illinois State University
   Lisa Janicke Hinchliffe and Patricia Meckstroth
   24

4. Navigating Knowledge Together: Faculty-Librarian Partnerships in Web-Based Learning
   Joyce A. Meldrem, Carolyn Johnson, and Carol Spradling
   30

5. Anatomy of an Outreach Program: Outreach at the UCSD Libraries
   Maggie Houlihan and Duffy Tweedy
   37

Faculty Development Programs

6. Training College Faculty to Use World Wide Web Technologies in the Classroom
   Leslie Czechowski and R. Cecilia Knight
   45
7 New Developments in the Learning Environment: A Partnership in Faculty Development
Tom Rocklin

8 Development of a Faculty Web Training Program at George Washington University
Scott Stebelman

9 Building Bridges with Faculty through Library Workshops
Julie Chapman and Michelle White

Faculty-Librarian Partnerships

10 What One Person Can Do: A Theory of Personal Involvement in Establishing Library-Faculty Partnerships
Bruce Gilbert

11 Creating a Successful Faculty-Librarian Partnership for First-Year Students: Librarian's Perspective, Faculty's Perspective
Susan Avery, Nancy Dejoy, and Virginia McQuistion

12 Going to (the Engineering) School: Strategies for Integrating Library Instruction in the Engineering Curriculum
Joan D. Ruelle

Partnering with Technology Centers

13 Learning Centers as Library Partners
Susan Deese-Roberts

14 Bleeding Edge: Challenges in Delivering Educational Technology Services
Jim Duncan

15 Powerful Partnerships: Cross-Campus Collaboration for Faculty Instructional Technology Education
Susan Hollar, Laurie Sutch, and Darlene Nichols

16 Collaborating with Faculty to Enhance an Academic Research Library's User Education Program
Jon R. Hufford

Instruction and Faculty Outreach

17 What Is the Matrix? Constructing a Virtual Presence for the Library Instruction Program
Angela E. Weaver
18 Scope and Sequence in Library Instruction: Getting the Most from Your Collaboration with Writing Programs
James Elmborg

19 Mass Instruction That Works: Teaching 900 First-Year Biology Students in Five Days
Randy Reichardt and Sandy Campbell

20 Improving World Civilizations Teaching and Learning through Educational Technology: A Continuing Program in Faculty–Librarian Collaboration
Carole Ann Fabian

Information Literacy

21 New Learners, New Models: Cultivating an Information Literacy Program
Andrée J. Rathemacher, Mary C. MacDonald, and Joanna M. Burkhardt

22 A Grass-Roots Approach to Integrating Information Literacy into the Curriculum
Marybeth McCartin

23 Making Sense of Science: The University of Iowa Science Information Literacy Initiative
Barbara I. Dewey and Karen Zimmerman

24 Information Literacy and Psychological Science: A Case Study of Collaboration
Elizabeth O. Hutchins and Bonnie S. Sherman

25 Faculty–Librarian Team Teach Information Literacy Survival Skills
Shelley Cudiner and Oskar R. Harmon

Web-Based Library Instruction

26 On-Line Course Integrated Library Instruction Modules as an Alternative Delivery Method
Melissa Koenig and Eric Novotny

27 Hype, High Hopes, and Damage Control: Facilitating End-User Learning During a System Migration
Lynne Rudastil, Lori A. DuBois, and Susan E. Searing
Specialized User Populations

28 Designing Effective Instructional and Outreach Programs for Underrepresented Undergraduate Students: The Iowa Approach

Janice Simmons-Welburn

29 Tale of Two Collaborations

Diane Dallis and Emily Okada

30 Designed to Serve from a Distance: Developing Library Web Pages to Support Distance Education

Stephen H. Dew

31 Supporting and Educating Students at a Distance: The Open University (U.K.) Library’s Experience of Developing Learner Support

Alison Bremner

32 Information Competency Continuum: A University, K–12 Collaboration

Eleanor Mitchell and Stephanie Sterling Brasley

Partnerships with Health Sciences Communities

33 Teaching Evidence-Based Health Care: A Model for Developing Faculty–Librarian Partnerships

Clarissa C. Fisher and Rick W. Wilson

34 Web Technology and Evidence-Based Medicine: Usability Testing an EBM Web Site

Robert Vander Hart and Margaret Spinner

35 Integrating Library and Information Competencies into the Nursing Curriculum through Faculty–Librarian Collaboration

Karla J. Block

36 Improving Nurses’ Access to and Use of Professionally Relevant Information in a BSN Completion Program

Mary L. Kinnaman, Susan Sykes Berry, and Kathy Ballou

37 Web-Based Instruction for Undergraduate Nurses

Richard Eimas and Hope Barton

38 Partnering with Occupational Therapy: The Evolution of an Information Literacy Program

Rebecca S. Graves
Contents

39 Information Literacy and International Health Topics
Richard Eimas, John Schacht, Afeworki Paulos, and Sandy Ballasch

Program Assessment and Modeling

40 Preassessment of Library Skills: Why Bother?
Marsha Miller

41 Implementing an Assessment Program for Student
Information Competency at Appalachian State University
Dr. W. Bede Mitchell and Dr. Ann Viles

42 Situated Learning at the Georgia Tech Library: Moving from an Instructivist to a Constructivist Model of Undergraduate User Education
Julie Wood

Bibliography

Index

Contributors