Henry James
Goes to the Movies

Edited by Susan M. Griffin

THE UNIVERSITY PRESS OF KENTUCKY
Contents

List of Illustrations vii

Introduction: Making Movies with Henry James 1
Susan M. Griffin

Filming James, 1961–1984

“The Story . . . Held Us”: The Turn of the Screw from Henry James to Jack Clayton 11
Anthony J. Mazzella

Reexamining Bogdanovich’s Daisy Miller 34
Peggy McCormack

“The Tie of a Common Aversion”: Sexual Tensions in Henry James’s The Other House 60
Priscilla L. Walton

Mourning, Nostalgia, and Melancholia: Unlocking the Secrets of Truffaut’s The Green Room 76
Matthew F. Jordan

Still Me(n): Superman Meets The Bostonians 99
Leland S. Person

Watching Isabel, Listening to Catherine

Conscious Observation: Jane Campion’s Portrait of a Lady 127
Nancy Bentley

“Prospects of Entertainment”: Film Adaptations of Washington Square 147
Julie H. Rivkin
“Her Ancient Faculty of Silence”: Catherine Sloper’s Ways of Being in James’s Washington Square and Two Film Adaptations 170
Karen Michele Chandler

Getting James in the Nineties
Ambassadors from an Imaginary “Elsewhere”: Cinematic Convention and the Jamesian Sensibility 193
Alan Nadel
Cultural Capitalism and the “James Formation” 210
Marc Bousquet
Content or Costume? James as Cultural Capital 240
Dale M. Bauer
“Hallucinations of Intimacy”: The Henry James Films 254
Dianne F. Sadoff

Latest James
“Based on the Novel by Henry James”: The Golden Bowl 2000 281
Lee Clark Mitchell
The Rift in the Loot: Cognitive Dissonance for the Reader of Merchant Ivory’s The Golden Bowl 305
Wendy Graham

The James Films and the Critical Reactions
A Henry James Filmography 335
J. Sarah Koch
Bibliography of Critical Work on James and Film 359
Sarah Edgington and Steven Wexler

List of Contributors 367
Index 371