Contents

Foreword Chad Gaffield xvii
Preface Alison Prentice xix
Acknowledgments xxi
Introduction Sharon Anne Cook, Lorna R. McLean, and Kate O'Rourke xxiii
Suggestions on How to Use This Book xxix

PART ONE LIVING WOMEN’S LIVES

1 Introduction Veronica Strong-Boag 3
Sidebar: Fanny Bobbie Rosenfeld 3
Sidebar: Lucy Maud Montgomery 5

2 “Club”: Laundering Clothing in Newfoundland Kathleen Wilker 7

3 Vignette: Stirring the Pot* 9

4 Winnipeg Women Getting Together: Study Groups and Reading Clubs, 1900–1940
Jody Baltessen and Shelagh J. Squire 10

5 Vignette: Life in the Town of Nelson, British Columbia Brenda Hornby 15

6 “Doing All the Rest”: Church Women of the Ladies’ Aid Society Marilyn Färdig Whiteley 18

7 Preserving Habits: Memory within Communities of English
Canadian Women Religious Elizabeth Smyth 22

* Unless otherwise indicated, vignettes are authored by the editors.
8 Mildred Armstrong and Missionary Culture  Marjorie Levan  27

9 Vignette: Women's Spiritual Lives  33

10 E. Pauline Johnson: Mohawk-English Writer and Performer  Veronica Strong-Boag  35
   Sidebar: Emma Albani  36

11 Vignette: Two Perspectives on Urban Living
   Mairuth Sarsfield  Mairuth Hodge Sarsfield  39
   Sidebar: Margaret Marshall Saunders  39
   Gabrielle Roy  Pierrette Boily  40

12 Ada Gladys Killins: Sacrificing for Art's Sake  Sharon Anne Cook  41

13 Vignette: The Road Less Taken – The Single Woman as Artist
   The Unmarried Woman Artist: Emily Carr  Sonia Halpern  45
   Isabel and Helen Stadelbauer: Art Teachers in Calgary  Helen Diemert  46

14 A Sense of Place in Alberta: The Art and Life of Annora Brown  Kirstin Evenden  48

15 Vignette: Yukon Women Pioneers
   Edith Josie: “These Are the News”  Charlene Porsild  52
   Martha Louise Black  53

16 Alice Peck, May Phillips, and the Canadian Handicrafts Guild  Ellen Easton McLeod  54

17 Vignette: Life in a Native Community  57

18 Helen Kalvak: Pioneering Inuit Print-maker  Jessica Tomic-Bagshaw  60

19 Virginia J. Watt: Champion of Inuit Arts and Crafts  Ellen Easton McLeod  62

20 A Century of Artistic Experience and Innovation  Anne Newlands  65
PART TWO  FAMILY AND THE HOME

21 Introduction  Cynthia R. Comacchio  75

22 Zoë Laurier, Prime Minister’s Wife: Family Ideals at the Turn of the Century  Catherine Vye  82

23 “A Hardier Stock of Womankind”: Alice Barrett Parke in British Columbia  Jo Fraser Jones  86

24 Life on the Frontier: Remembering the Coal Mining Camp at Cadomin, 1929–1934  Edith Wheeler  96

26 Defining the Lives of Rural Women: Laura Rose on “The Womanly Sphere of Woman”  Margaret Kechnie  111

27 “Such Outrageous Discrimination”: Farm Women and Their Family Grievances in Early Twentieth-Century Ontario  Monda Halpern  116

28 Between the Rock and a Hard Place: Single Mothers in St John’s, Newfoundland, during the Second World War  Ruth Haywood  124

29 Prudence Heward: Painting at Home  Pepita Ferrari  129

30 Mothering the Dionne Quintuplets: Women’s Stories  Katherine Arnup  134

31 Saving Mothers and Babies: Motherhood, Medicine, and the Modern State, 1900-1945  Cynthia R. Comacchio  139

PART THREE  TEACHING AND LEARNING

32 Introduction  Nicole Neatby  149

33 Shaping Canada’s Women: Canadian Girls in Training versus Girl Guides  Patricia Dirks  155

34 The Experience of Women Students at Four Universities, 1895–1930  Alyson E. King  160
   Sidebar: Grace Annie Lockhart  160
Margaret Addison: Dean of Residence and Dean of Women at Victoria University, 1903–1931  Jean O’Grady  166

The “Feminization” of High Schools: The Problem of Women Secondary School Teachers in Ontario  Susan Gelman  170

Writing for Whom? Isabel Murphy Skelton and Canadian History in the Early Twentieth Century  Terry Crowley  174

The Rideau Street Convent School: French-Language Private Schooling in Ontario  Isabelle Bourgeois  178

“The School on Fardy’s Cross”: Shamrock School Remembered  Pat Trites  184

Vignette: Women, Team Sport, and Physical Education
Women and Physical Education  Ellen O’Reilly  189
Women and Team Sport  Veronica Strong-Boag  192
Montreal Sportswomen and the Penguin Ski Club  Andrea Winlo  193

From Elegance and Expression to Sweat and Strength: Physical Education at the Margaret Eaton School  Anna H. Lathrop  194

PART FOUR  WOMEN’S ACTIVISM AND THE STATE

Introduction  Joan Sangster  201
Sidebar: Adelaide Hunter Hoodless  201
Sidebar: Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire  208

History and Human Agency: The Case of Agnes Macphail, Canada’s First Woman Member of Parliament  Terry Crowley  212

The Persons Case, 1929: A Legal Definition of Women as Persons  Anne White  216

Women, the Settlement Movement, and State Formation in the Early Twentieth Century  Cathy James  222

The Historical Record and Adolescent Girls in Montreal’s Red-Light District  Tamara Myers  228

   Joan Sangster 240

49 Making Ourselves Heard: “Voice of Women” and the Peace Movement in the Early Sixties
   Candace Loewen 248

   and Its Radical Implications Kimberly Speers 252
   Sidebar: Lady Ishbel Aberdeen 252

51 Florence Bird Judi Cumming 257

52 Women, Peace Activism, and the Environment: Rosalie Bertell and the Development of a Feminist Agenda, 1970s–1990s Judi Cumming 259

53 State Control of Women’s Immigration: The Passage to Canada of South Asian Women
   Helen Ralston 263

54 Making Space: Women Building Culture Janice Hladki and Ann Holmes 267

55 Feminist Theatre in Toronto: A Look at the Nightwood Theatre Corinne Rusch-Drutz 271

PART FIVE  HEALTH CARE AND SCIENCE

56 Introduction Wendy Mitchinson 277

57 The Ladies Committee of the Home for Incurable Children Magda Zakanyi 284

58 Margaret Scott: “The Angel of Poverty Row” Tamara Miller 287

59 “Hardly Feminine Work!” Violet Wilson and the Canadian Voluntary Aid Detachment Nurses
   of the First World War Linda J. Quiney 289
   Sidebar: Major Margaret C. Macdonald 291

60 The Emergence of Physiotherapy as a New Profession for Canadian Women, 1914–1918 Ruby Heap 295
PART SIX  EARNING THEIR BREAD

66 Introduction  A.B. McCullough  319
Sidebar: Depression Years  325
Sidebar: Pay Equity  326

67 Vignette: An Oral History Case Study
A Barnardo Girl Becomes a Servant at Glanmore  Christine Zaporzan  333

68 Bringing “Domestics” to Canada: A Study of Immigration Propaganda  Ellen Scheinberg  336

69 Women in the Newfoundland Fishery  Miriam Wright  343

70 Vignette: Madeleine Constant, Leader in the Pasta Industry  Lise Brémauld  347

71 Creative Ability and Business Sense: The Millinery Trade in Ontario  Christina Bates  348

72 Our Mothers’ Patterns: Sewing and Dressmaking in the Japanese-Canadian Community  Susan Michi Sirovyak  359

73 Federica and Angelina: Postwar Italian-Canadian Couturiers in Toronto  Alexandra Palmer  366

74 Fabrications: Clothing, Generations, and Stitching Together the History We Live  Kathryn Church  372

75 The Telephone Operator: From “Information Central” to Endangered Species  Caroline Martel (translated by Rosemary Covert)  376
76 Ann Meekitjuk Hanson: Inuit Broadcaster, Interpreter, and Community Worker Christine Lalonde 378

77 Cultural Nationalism and Maternal Feminism: Madge Macbeth as Writer, Broadcaster, and Literary Figure Peggy Kelly 381

78 “The Day of the Strong-Minded Frump Has Passed”: Women Journalists and News of Feminism Barbara M. Freeman 385

Sidebar: Jean McKishnie Blewett 385

79 Women in Banking: A Case Study of Scotiabank Jane Nokes and Lisa Singer 392

80 Vignette: The Keroacks, a Family of Business Women Lise Brémauld 395

81 “The Queen of the Hurricanes”: Elsie Gregory MacGill, Aeronautical Engineer and Women’s Advocate Pamela Wakewich 396

82 The Women’s Royal Canadian Naval Service during the Second World War: An Exploration of Their Archival Legacy Donna Porter 402

83 Vignette: “Not Just ‘Rosie the Riveter ...’” 407

85 Foreign-Aid Worker and Humanitarian Lotta Hitschmanova and the Unitarian Service Committee of Canada Grace Hyam 417

Appendix One: Archival Sources Identified by Essay/Vignette 423

Appendix Two: Cross-Referenced Essay Index 427

Notes 431

Selected Readings 485

Contributors 489