Gaining Advantage from Open Borders
An active space approach to regional development

Edited by
MARINA VAN GEENHUIZEN
Delft University of Technology, The Netherlands

REMIGIO RATTI
University of Fribourg and
Università della Svizzera italiana, Lugano, Switzerland

Ashgate
Aldershot • Burlington USA • Singapore • Sydney
Contents

Figures and Tables
Contributors
Preface

PART I: INTRODUCTION

1. An Active Space Approach to Regional Development
   Marina van Geenhuizen and Remigio Ratti
   3

2. Regional Active Space: A Regional Scientist’s Paradigmatic Answer to the Local-Global Debate
   Remigio Ratti
   21

3. The Importance of Being Active. A Comment on the Active Space Approach from an Austrian Perspective
   Michael Steiner
   43

4. Governance for Territorial Development: What is It About?
   Alberto Bramanti
   53

PART II: REASONS FOR AN ACTIVE SPACE APPROACH

5. Obstacles to Openness of Border Regions in Europe
   Piet Rietveld
   79

6. Openness: A Value in Itself? The Case of the Dutch-German Ems-Dollart Region
   Enne de Boer
   97
The Determinants of Cross-Border Economic Relations. The Case of The Netherlands and Belgium
Henk van Houtum

Cross-Border Economic Dynamics. Threats or Opportunities in the Swiss-Italian Labour Market
Mario A. Maggioni and Alberto Bramanti

Which Role for Foreign Direct Investment? Active Space Development in Central and Eastern Europe
Marina van Geenhuizen

In Search of Complementarities. Initiation of Interaction with Russian Karelia
Heikki Eskelinen

Cross-Border Co-operation in the German-Polish Border Area
Stefan Krätke

PART III: CONDITIONS AND POLICIES IN ACTIVE SPACE DEVELOPMENT

Managing the Openness of Border Regions in the Context of European Integration
Zdravko Mlinar

Active Cross-Border Regions: Institutional Dynamics and Institution Building
Joachim Blatter

Knowledge as a Crucial Resource in Policy Making for Mainport Rotterdam
Marina van Geenhuizen and Peter Nijkamp

Co-operation between Local Governments: Can a Holding Company be a Solution in Public-Private Partnerships?
Remigio Ratti and Christian Vitta
16 New Technology-Based Firms and the Activation of the Styrian Economy
   Michael Steiner and Thomas Jud 319

17 The Search for the Best Location of a Free Zone at the Eastern Border of Germany
   Arndt Siepmann 345

18 European Policies for European Border Regions: An Active Space Approach?
   Fabienne Corvers 369

19 Reflections on Active Space Development: Emerging Issues and New Research Paths
   Marina van Geenhuizen and Remigio Ratti 389