The Achievement of

GALILEO

EDITED WITH NOTES BY JAMES BROPHY
AND
HENRY PAOLUCCI

WITH AN INTRODUCTION BY
HENRY PAOLUCCI

PREFACE TO NEW EDITION BY
Anne Paolucci
Contents

PREFACE TO NEW EDITION
   by Anne Paolucci 5

INTRODUCTION
   Twentieth Century Questions
   by Henry Paolucci 7

CHAPTER I
   Discovery and the Burden of the Past
      Introductory Note 19
      Galileo, from the Starry Messenger
       (translated by Stillman Drake) 21
      Galileo, from The Assayer
       (translated by Henry Paolucci) 31
      Galileo, from the Dialogue on the Great World Systems (the Salusbury translation revised by Giorgio de Santillana) 33

CHAPTER II
   The Copernican Controversy
      Introductory Note 41
      Cardinal Bellarmine, Letter to Foscarini
       (translated by Stillman Drake) 44
      Galileo, Notes in response to Cardinal Bellarmine’s letter
       (translated by Stillman Drake) 47
      Thomas Campanella, from The Defense of Galileo
       (translated by Grant McColley) 51
      Galileo, from the Dialogue on the Great World Systems (the Salusbury translation revised by Giorgio de Santillana) 63
Galileo, Recantation
(from The Crime of Galileo, by Giorgio de Santillana) 109

CHAPTER III
Two New Sciences
Introductory Note 111

Galileo, from the Dialogues Concerning Two New Sciences
(translated by Henry Crew and Alfonso de Salvio) 112

CHAPTER IV
The Judgment of Posterity
Introductory Note 153

Paolo Frisi, "Galileo" from the Encyclopedia of Diderot and d'Alembert
(translated by James Brophy) 155

Thomas Henri Martin, from Galileo
(translated by James Brophy) 170

Andrew Dickson White, from A History of the Warfare of Science with Theology in Christendom 186

Albert Einstein, "Foreword"
(translated by Sonja Bargmann) 204

Morris R. Cohen, from Studies in Philosophy and Science 213

Philipp Frank, from Modern Science and Its Philosophy 224

Pierre Duhem, from To Save the Phenomena
(translated by Anne Paolucci) 237

CONCLUSION 251