EXPECTATIONS OF THE LAW IN THE MIDDLE AGES

Edited by

Anthony Musson

THE BOYDELL PRESS
CONTENTS

List of Tables and Figures vii

Foreword Michael Clanchy ix

Abbreviations xii

Introduction Anthony Musson 1

1 The King and the Fox: Reactions to the Role of Kingship in Tales of Reynard the Fox 9 Richard W. Kaeuper

2 Flanders: A Pioneer of State-Orientated Feudalism? Feudalism as an Instrument of Comital Power in Flanders During the High Middle Ages (1000–1300) 23 Dirk Heirbaut

3 'The People of Sweden shall have Peace': Peace Legislation and Royal Power in Later Medieval Sweden 35 Mia Korpiola

4 The 'Assize of Count Geoffrey' (1185): Law and Politics in Angevin Brittany 53 Judith Everard

5 Charter Writing and the Exercise of Lordship in Thirteenth-Century Celtic Scotland 67 Cynthia J. Neville

6 Liberty and Fraternity: Creating and Defending the Liberty of St Albans 91 Julia Crick

7 Counterfeiters, Forgers and Felons in English Courts, 1200–1400 195 Henry Summerson

8 Law, Morals and Money: Royal Regulation of the Substance of Subjects' Sales and Loans in England, 1272–1399 117 Gwen Seabourne

10 Conscience, Justice and Authority in the Late-Medieval English Court of Chancery 151 Timothy S. Haskett
Contents

11 Appealing to the Past: Perceptions of Law in Later Medieval England
Anthony Musson
165

12 Victorian Perceptions of Medieval Jurisprudence
Chantal Stebbings
181

13 Historians’ Expectations of the Medieval Legal Records
Penny Tucker
191

Index
203