Aspects of Teaching Secondary Geography

Perspectives on practice

Edited by Maggie Smith
Contents

List of figures viii
List of tables xi
List of abbreviations xii
Sources xiii
Acknowledgements xv
Foreword xvi
Preface xviii
Introduction xix

SECTION 1 Geography in the school curriculum
1 Working with the National Curriculum 3
   MARK JONES
2 Geography at GCSE level 24
   NICK ROWLES
3 The new AS and A2 specifications for Geography 34
   SHEILA MORRIS
4 The contribution of Geography to vocational courses post-16 46
   ALAN MARVELL

SECTION 2 Geography in (and out of) the classroom
5 Continuity across the primary-secondary interface 63
   I Continuity after the National Curriculum 63
      BILL MARSDEN
   II Some curriculum initiatives from Hampshire 69
      BARBARA JONES
6 Planning for enquiry 77
   GILL DAVIDSON
7 Talking, reading and writing: language and literacy in Geography 95
   MARGARET ROBERTS
8 Thinking through Geography 109
   DAVID LEAT
CONTENTS

9 Teaching about the language of maps
   PAUL WEEDON
   118

10 Towards deeper fieldwork
   DAVID JOB
   128

11 Inclusive geographies
   I Differentiation in practice
      ADRIAN NORTON
      146
   II Disability and inclusive landscapes
      ROB KITCHEN
      155

12 Assessment in practice
   I Improving formative assessment
      NIC HOWES AND JOHN HOPKIN
      166
   II Assessing students’ thinking
      DAVID LEAT AND JULIE MCGRANE
      173
   III Marking and homework: Sunday evening at the kitchen table
      DAVID BALDERSTONE AND DAVID LAMBERT
      181

13 Evaluating and using resources
   FRED MARTIN AND PATRICK BAILEY
   187

14 Teaching Geography with televisual resources
   CHRIS DURBIN
   200

15 ICT and Geography
   Introduction
   MAGGIE SMITH
   210
   I Using ICT to raise achievement
      FRED MARTIN
      212
   II GIS in school Geography
      ANDREW WILLIAMS
      221
   III Using presentation packages for collaborative work
      LIZ TAYLOR
      227

SECTION 3 Geography for the twenty-first century

16 Geography and ‘race’
   JOHN MORGAN
   235

17 Geography and Citizenship
   STEPHANIE TURNER
   245

18 Teaching and learning about development
   TONY BINNS
   264
19 Envisioning a better world: sustainable development in school Geography
   DAVID HICKS
20 Young people’s geovisions
   LINDA THOMPSON
21 Image and reality: how do others see us?
   ASHLEY KENT

SECTION 4 Research geography and professional development
22 An overview of research in geographical education
   ROD GERBER AND MICHAEL WILLIAMS
23 Corked hats and Coronation Street: children’s imaginative geographies
   SARAH HOLLOWAY AND GILL VALENTINE
24 The worlds of girls and boys: geographic experience and informal learning opportunities
   PAMELA WRIDT
25 Facilitating research in geographical and environmental education
   ASHLEY KENT

Index