Contents

List of Figures vii
List of Tables ix
Preface xiii

1. The Chumash in World and Regional Perspectives 1
   JEANNE E. ARNOLD

2. The Channel Islands Project: History, Objectives, and Methods 21
   JEANNE E. ARNOLD

3. Ethnohistoric Reflections of Cruzeño Chumash Society 53
   JOHN R. JOHNSON

4. The Evolution of Specialized Shellworking among the Island Chumash 71
   JEANNE E. ARNOLD AND ANTHONY P. GRAESCH

5. Flaked Stone Craft Production and Exchange in Island Chumash Territory 113
   JEANNE E. ARNOLD, AIMEE M. PREZIOSI, AND PAUL SHATTUCK

6. Bifaces and the Institutionalization of Exchange Relationships in the Chumash Sphere 133
   SCOTT PLETKA

7. Standardization and Specialization: The Island Chumash Microdrill Industry 151
   AIMEE M. PREZIOSI

8. Groundstone Tools as Indicators of Changing Subsistence and Exchange Patterns in the Coastal Chumash Region 165
   COLLEEN DELANEY-RIVERA

9. Bone Tool Technology on Santa Cruz Island and Implications for Exchange 183
   THOMAS A. WAKE

10. Ecological and Economic Analysis of Faunal Remains from Santa Cruz Island 199
    ROGER H. COLTEN

11. The Economics of Island Chumash Fishing Practices 221
    SCOTT PLETKA

12. Paleoethnobotanical Investigations of Archaeological Sites on Santa Cruz Island 245
    STEVE L. MARTIN AND VIRGINIA S. POPPER

13. Culture Contact on the Channel Islands: Historic-Era Production and Exchange Systems 261
    ANTHONY P. GRAESCH

14. Social Evolution and the Political Economy in the Northern Channel Islands 287
    JEANNE E. ARNOLD

References 297
Contributors 317