Towards Holistic Governance

The New Reform Agenda

Perri 6, Diana Leat, Kimberly Seltzer and Gerry Stoker
Contents

List of Figures viii
Acknowledgements ix

Introduction
1 Holism Past and Present
Previous initiatives in holistic governance 9
The cyclical pattern behind interest in holistic governance 14
Explaining the rise and fall of holism: centrist politics 16
The roots of the New Labour agenda for ‘joining up’ 19
The New Labour holistic governance programme 22
Conclusion 26

2 Understanding Holistic Governance: Towards a Conceptual Framework 28
Dimensions of holistic governance: what is to be integrated? 28
Understanding key terms 30
Wicked problems 34
Fragmented governance and its roots 36
Holism rests on a view that something can be done 43
The goals of holistic governance 46
Measuring the depth of integration 47
Mechanisms, or what gets done 49
Types of holistic governance 49
Conclusion 49

3 The Case For and Against Holistic Governance 55
Trade-off(s) 55
The case against integration 57
The case for holistic governance 61
If the case for holism is accepted, when and where is it appropriate? 70
Conclusion 71
Contents

4 Lessons From Theory: How Coordination Can Work 72
- The tropes of interorganisational coordination: commonsense responses? 72
- Explaining the dominance of tropes 77
- Developing the framework: is reconciliation possible? 79
- Tropes of coordination and the deployment of tools for holistic governance 84
- Conclusion 88

5 Designing a Reform Strategy 89
- A framework for thinking about integration risk 90
- Failures in practice: key lessons for national government – the British case 95
- 'Top-down or bottom-up'? 101
- Organisational innovation in general: a game of two halves with compulsory extra time 102
- Specific lessons 111
- Conclusion 116

6 Interorganisational Relations and Practice 118
- Building trust: a key ingredient for holism 118
- Obstacles 121
- Tactics for overcoming obstacles 124
- Skills for integration 128
- Overcoming obstacles: answering the fatalist 139
- Conclusion 141

7 Information Systems 142
- Service provision 143
- Governance 150
- Sifting the evidence on the impact of e-governance 155
- Integration and privacy 162
- Conclusion 166

8 Accountability 168
- Understanding accountability 168
- Searching for accountability in holism 171
- Design principles for holistic accountability 176
- Focus on the executive structure or on the legislature? 179
- Central–local relations: accountability, devolution, decentralisation and local governance 186
Contents

Democracy and public accountability 189
Conclusion 193

9 Finance 194
A review of experience 196
Types of holistic budget strategy 203
Weak tools are needed to supplement, balance and give context to holistic budgets 206
Conclusion: budgeting in its place 210

10 The Prospects for Holistic Governance 212
The challenge 212
Institutionalisation and institutional change 216
Sufficient conditions for institutionalisation of paradigms of public management 219
How strong are the forces for the institutionalisation of holism? 233
Conclusion 241

References 243

Index 264