Contents

Acknowledgements vii
Notes on Contributors ix
Illustrations xiii

Introduction: ‘Dyed in the Wool English?’
Christopher Breward, Becky Conekin and Caroline Cox 1

Part I: Towards a History of English Style

1 On Englishness in Dress
Aileen Ribeiro 15

2 Englishness, Clothes and Little Things
Carolyn Steedman 29

3 Dressing like a Champion: Women’s Tennis Wear in Interwar England
Catherine Horwood 45

4 Strawberries and Cream: Dress, Migration and the Quintessence of Englishness
Carol Tulloch 61

Part II: On Designing Englishness

5 ‘What a Deal of Work there is in a Dress!’: Englishness and Home Dressmaking in the Age of the Sewing Machine
Barbara Burman 79

6 Rural Working-Class Dress, 1850–1900: A Peculiarly English Tradition?
Rachel Worth 97
Contents

7 The Wardrobe of Mrs Leonard Messel, 1895–1920
Lou Taylor
113

8 The Spirit of English Style: Hardy Amies, Royal Dressmaker and International Businessman
Edwina Ehrman
133

9 Gilded Brocade Gowns and Impeccable Tailored Tweeds: Victor Stiebel (1907–76) a Quintessentially English Designer
Amy de la Haye
147

Part III: Representing Englishness

10 Vivienne Westwood's Anglomania
Rebecca Arnold
161

11 English-style Photography?
Penny Martin
173

12 Fashion Stranger than Fiction: Shelley Fox
Caroline Evans
189

Appendix: The Korner Archive
Bronwen Edwards and Clare Lomas
213